Convictions And Controversies:

Convictions and Controversies Ralph Adams Cram, 1935 The Christian Reformer, Or, Unitarian Magazine and Review, 1848 The Victimology of a Wrongful Conviction Nicky Ali Jackson, Kathryn M. Campbell, Margaret Pate, 2022-07-07 This book exposes the myriad of victims of wrongful conviction by going beyond the innocent person who has been wrongfully incarcerated to include the numerous indirect victims who suffer collaterally. In no way overlooking the egregious effects on the wrongfully convicted, this book widens the net to also examine consequences for family, friends, co-workers, witnesses, the initial victims of the crime, and society in general—all indirect victims who are often forgotten in treatments of wrongful conviction. Utilizing interviews of exonerees and indirect victims, the authors capture the tangible and intangible costs of victimization across the board. The prison experience is examined through the lens of an innocent person, and the psychological impact of incarceration for the exoneree is explored. Special attention is given to the often ignored experience of female exonerees and to the impact of race as a compounding factor in a vast number of miscarriages of justice. The book concludes with an overview of the victimization experiences that follow exonerees upon release. Unique to this book is its interdisciplinary approach to the troubling subject of wrongful conviction, combining perspectives from a number of fields including criminal justice, criminology, victimology, psychology, sociology, social justice, history, political science, and law. Undergraduate and graduate students in these disciplines will find this book helpful in their respective areas of study, and professionals in the legal system will benefit from appreciation of the far-reaching costs of wrongful convictions. Gushee, 2014-05-12 In In the Fray collects David Gushee's most significant essays over twenty years as a Christian intellectual. Most of the essays were written in situations of ethical conflict on the highly contested ground of Christian public ethics. Topics addressed include torture, climate change, marriage and divorce, the treatment of gays and lesbians in the church, war, genocide, nuclear weapons, race, global poverty, faith and politics, Israel, Palestine, and even whether Christian ethics is a real academic discipline Quite visible in the collection is Gushee s deep research interest in the Nazi era in Germany and how the churches fared in resisting Nazi intimidations and seductions and finally the Holocaust All essays reflect the desire for a church that has learned the lessons of that period a church with resistance to racism militarism nationalism and other social ideological toxins and with the discernment and courage to resist these in favor of a courageous allegiance to the lordship of Christ at the time of testing Considerable attention is directed to contesting some of the public ethics found in the author s own US evangelical Christian community Concluding reflections on Gushee s ethical vision are offered in an illuminating essay by senior Christian ethicist Glen Harold Stassen The Missionary Controversy, Discussion, Evidence and Reports, 1890 Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society,1890 Philosophical Works: An essay concerning human understanding, book III-IV.
