Chaos 35 Københavns Universitet. Institut for Religionshistorie, Religionshistorisk Forening, The Other Lands of Israel Liv Lied, 2008-11-30 According to the current scholarly consensus the apocalypse of 2 Baruch written after the Fall of Jerusalem either rejected the concept of the Land of Israel as a place of salvation or regarded it as of minor importance Inspired by the perspective of Critical Spatial Theory this book discusses the presuppositions behind this consensus with regard to the spatial epistemology it assumes and explores the conception of the Land as a broad redemptive category The result is a fresh portrait of the vitality of the Land theme in the first centuries of the common era and a new perspective on the spatial imagination of 2 Baruch Literature and Mnemonic Migration Eneken Laanes, Jessica Ortner, Tea

Sindbæk-Andersen, 2025-05-19 This book deals with mnemonic migration understood as the movement of memories across linguistic cultural and mnemonic borders via the medium of literature In contemporary literature there is a growing number of authors with migration experience some of whom write not in native tongue but in their second or third language and who represent their experience of migration as encounter of different historical memories When migrating to a new place people enter not only a new political and cultural structure but also a new framework of memory They need to adjust their historical imaginaries thereby also contesting and expanding the framework they enter The volume explores how contemporary literature addresses specific historical legacies juxtaposes them multidirectionally and disseminates them in original and through translation in different parts of the world and in various social contexts Furthermore this volume traces literature's role in the processes of memory circulation translation and reception from the interdisciplinary perspectives of cultural memory studies translation studies reception studies and the studies of migrant and multilingual literature Chaos 39,
