policies that end in war Why do states with internal conflicts seem to become entangled in wars with their neighbors What roles do nationalism and ethnicity play in international conflict What kinds of countries are most likely to become involved in war Why have certain pairs of countries been particularly war prone over the centuries Can strong states deter war Can we find any patterns in the way that war breaks out How do balances of power or changes in balances of power make war more likely Do social scientists currently have an answer to the question of what causes war Cashman examines theories of war at the individual substate nation state dyadic and international systems level of analysis Written in a clear and accessible style this interdisciplinary text will be essential reading for all students of international relations The DTIC Review ,1995-08
