The Aesthetics of Mythmaking in German Postwar Culture André Fischer, 2024-03-15 Myths are a central part of our reality But merely debunking them lets us forget why they are created in the first place and why we need them Andr Fischer draws on key examples from German postwar culture from novelists Hans Henny Jahnn and Hubert Fichte to sculptor and performance artist Joseph Beuys and filmmaker Werner Herzog to show that mythmaking is an indispensable human practice in times of crisis Against the background of mythologies based in nineteenth century romanticism and their ideological continuation in Nazism fresh forms of mythmaking in the narrative visual and performative arts emerged as an aesthetic paradigm in postwar modernism Boldly rewriting the cultural history of an era and setting in transition The Aesthetics of Mythmaking in German Postwar Culture counters the predominant narrative of an exclusively rational Vergangenheitsbew ltigung coming to terms with the past Far from being merely reactionary the turn toward myth offered a dimension of existential orientation that had been neglected by other influential aesthetic paradigms of the postwar period Fischer s wide ranging transmedia account offers an inclusive perspective on myth beyond storytelling and instead develops mythopoesis as a formal strategy of modernism at large

The Postcolonial Eye Alison Ravenscroft, 2016-03-03 Informed by theories of the visual knowledge and desire The Postcolonial Eye is about the eye and the I in contemporary Australian scenes of race Specifically it is about seeing where vision is taken to be subjective and shaped by desire and about knowing one another across the cultural divide between white and Indigenous Australia Writing against current moves to erase this divide and to obscure difference Alison Ravenscroft stresses that modern Indigenous cultures can be profoundly even bewilderingly strange and at times unknowable within the terms of white cultural forms She argues for a different ethics of looking in particular for aesthetic practices that allow Indigenous cultural products especially in the literary arts to retain their strangeness in the eyes of a white subject The specificity of her subject matter allows Ravenscroft to deal with the broad issues of postcolonial theory and race and ethnicity without generalising This specificity is made visible in for example Ravenscroft s treatment of the figuring of white desire in Aboriginal fiction film and life stories and in her treatment of contemporary Indigenous cultural practices While it is located in Australian Studies Ravenscroft s book in its rigorous interrogation of the dynamics of race and whiteness and engagement with European and American literature and criticism has far reaching implications for understanding the important question of race and vision

Experimentation and the Autobiographical Search for Identity in the Projects of Michel Leiris and Hubert Fichte Thomas Wilks, 2006 This study compares the substantial literary projects of Michel Leiris and Hubert Fichte and examines how they overstep theoretical prescriptions in their explorations of the self Throughout the book the author contends that for Leiris and Fichte alike life and writing become mutually defining over the protracted progressions of their self scrutiny Landmarks in the German Novel Peter Hutchinson, Michael Minden, 2007 The nine essays in this volume deal with major achievements in the German novel since 1959 They range from the very well known such as Brussig's Helden wie wir an extravagant treatment of life under the Stasi and the fall of the Berlin Wall to the much more recondite such as Hubert Fichte's Detlevs Imitationen Gr nspan one of the first and most important products of the abolition of the discrimination against gays in 1969 What is most surprising about this collection is that in contrast to the majority of successful novels written in German before 1959 only one of these is by a clearly West German author Hubert Fichte There is by contrast a surprising number who have their roots in the GDR Plenzdorf Wolf Brussig Schulze or in Austria Bachmann Bernhard This is also a period in which women writers emerge powerfully Bachmann Wolf and zdamar Virtually all these novels aroused controversy in some quarters at the time of their publication often for their treatment of semi taboo or at least uncomfortable subject matter These essays all by specialists in the relevant field were originally delivered as lectures in the University of Cambridge Dimension2 ,1995 German Writing Since 1945 Lowell A. Bangerter, 1988 New German Critique ,2009 Frieze ,2003 Dimension ,1987 The Dissident Word Chris Miller, 1996-04-16 To be Continued Merle Jacob, Hope Apple, 1995 This guide identifies both in print and out of print works of fiction featuring continuing themes plots or characters in which there is a sense of development and passage of time Entries are arranged alphabetically by author and are accompanied by bibliographic information Detlev Von Liliencron's Lyrical Poetry with Special Reference to Content Irma Louise Filsinger, 1917 Néstor Perlongher Ben Bollogh, 2008 The Argentine Nestor Perlongher was a groundbreaking poet and anthropologist whose work takes on the most dynamic and conflictive themes of modern day Latin America His poetry addresses issues of dictatorship national identity exile transvestism and marginal sexualities and modern day esoteric religions while his anthropological work challenged the very limits of the human being and attacked the most entrenched of contemporary taboos Nestor Perlongher The Poetic Search for an Argentine Marginal Voice is a vital addition to our understanding of the difficult work of this poet for two reasons First Perlongher was a pioneer in a number of fields sexual rights urban anthropology the philosophy of Deleuze and Guattari esoteric religions and crucially modern Plate River poetry This work is the first in English to comprehensively address this provocative and innovative oeuvre Secondly Perlongher's difficult highly allusive and linguistically challenging poetry creates problems of reading and interpretation for any researcher Ben Bollig draws on a wealth of historical cultural and social research about contemporary Argentina providing a rich background against which to assess Perlongher's work. The detailed close readings of the poems themselves offer ways into Perlongher's work and methodological tools for the study of difficult poetry. BOOK JACKET
