The French Novel: Theory and Practice Michael

Butor, 2024-10-07

Paratexts Gerard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gerard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory
