The Legal Protection of Foreign Investments Against Political Risk Thomas Nektarios Papanastasiou, 2015-08-19. The Legal Protection of Foreign Investments Against Political Risk examines how political risks associated with foreign direct investment in the energy sector are managed or mitigated and suggests new ways to deal with the possibility of such risk. It applies its analysis using case studies and international law and examining actual contracts to the specific context of foreign investment in five Asian countries power infrastructure projects. Legal protection of foreign investments against political risk has been a problem for a long time. Professor Papanastasiou's book brilliantly balances the legitimate regulatory power of host states with legitimate business interests of foreign investors by presenting a neatly designed multi-layered legal framework for political risk management. This is an important contribution to both the study of international investment law and the practice of foreign investment business transactions.

Junji Nakagawa Professor of International Economic Law Institute of Social Science University of Tokyo. Author International Harmonization of Economic Regulation Oxford University Press 2011. This book is an impressive and important entry into the field of international investment law scholarship. While maintaining a focus on the important Japanese and Asian regions it also provides a general and up to date coverage of relevant international investment law and political risk considerations faced by multinational corporations. It is impressively concise yet thorough it is practical yet takes into account relevant and recent legal scholarship. It is well written and organized. The ultimate goal is to help foreign investors and their advisors understand the current international investment law framework and climate to enable them to devise strategies to help their clients reduce political risk and to protect their clients property rights and investments. This work should be of interest to in house counsel and international law practitioners as well as to law students and scholars for its coverage of current international investment law standards scholarship and practices.
