Developing the Nonfarm Sector in Bangladesh Shahid Yusuf, Praveen Kumar, 1996-01-01 IFC Discussion Paper No 30
Draws on a case study of a cement plant in Estonia to compare the private costs of curbing pollution with the social benefits that may accrue to the population The study concludes that the social benefits exceed private costs by a margin that sufficiently justifies the environmental investment

China's Urban Transport Development Strategy Stephen Stares, Zhi Liu, 1996 World Bank Discussion Paper No 352 Presents the proceedings of the China Urban Transport Symposium held in Beijing November 9-11 1995 jointly sponsored by China's Ministry of Construction and Ministry of Finance the People's Bank of China the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank The symposium addressed a wide range of topics including motor vehicle pollution urban transport management and planning bicycles in cities mass rapid transit public transit reform and the role of the private sector

Making the Transition Work for Women in Europe and Central Asia Marnia Lazreg, 2000 Women in the Europe and Central Asia region complain about loss of employment sexual harassment violence poor enforcement of the law poor political representation and poor health care Many greet these complaints with skepticism or dismissal Is it economic expedience due to the sheer magnitude of the changes taking place under the transition Did the Soviet legacy delude observers into believing that there is gender equality in the region While budgets shrink how can gender be integrated into country department work programs To answer these and other pressing questions regarding the gender issue the World Bank held a conference in June 1999 Women from the ECA region Western Europe and the United States gathered to address the lack of Bank knowledge of gender issues in the Eastern Europe and Central Asia Region The papers from the conference included in this volume describe the present conditions for women emphasize the need to debunk the myth of gender equality in the Soviet era and propose urgent legislative measures to address gender disparity This publication gives women the opportunity to voice their concerns regarding this issue It will be of interest to regional gender experts ministries and think tanks

The Demand for Oil Products in Developing Countries Dermot Gately, Shane S. Streifel, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 354 Promoting a high savings rate is high on the World Bank's agenda for promoting national income growth This study surveys broad saving trends worldwide summarizes current knowledge about savings and consumption identifies main unresolved issues and outlines the major policy questions to be researched The paper includes case studies from Sub Saharan Africa China Colombia India Mexico and Pakistan

East Asia Corporations, 2000 East Asian corporations differ from their counterparts in other countries in important ways Before the recent financial crisis these differences were viewed as one of the reasons for the success of East Asian economies The crisis altered that view and many scholars now argue that the weak corporate governance and financing structures of East Asian corporations are partly to blame for the recent crisis This paper reviews several features of East Asian corporations showing that they have high leverage and concentrated ownership are typically affiliated with business groups and operate in multiple industries These characteristics affected the performance of corporations prior to the crisis as well as their ability to deal with its aftermath Each economy's level of development also affected how these characteristics interacted with firm performance and valuation Finally the concentration of ownership in the hands of a few large families may have influenced economies institutional development

Easing Barriers to Movement of Plant Varieties for Agricultural Development David Gisselquist, Jitendra Srivastava, 1997-01-01 World Bank Technical Paper No 364 The trade policies of the countries of the Andean Group Bolivia Colombia Ecuador Peru and Venezuela are in the midst of rapid change particularly in agriculture where trade policies are being overhauled and trade rules rewritten on domestic regional and global levels This paper highlights the trade options open to each country by looking at agricultural policy in light of general trade policy The report also discusses the particular role the Andean Group is playing and how the trade pact may influence the liberalization of agricultural markets

Sri Lanka's Tea Industry Ridwan Ali, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 367 Many developing countries enforce seed regulations and other policies that obstruct private companies from operating and delivering new technology This volume presents recommendations and selected papers from an international workshop organized by the World Bank in 1995 to review seed policies and to develop recommendations on ways of easing entry barriers for certain varieties of seeds in developing countries The papers and discussions identified reforms to speed the flow of private seed technology to these countries with a particular focus on reforms and their impacts in Bangladesh India Peru and Turkey

Sri Lanka's Rubber Industry Yusuf Choudhry, Douglas W. Lister, 1997 World Bank Technical Paper No 359 As the telecommunications sector evolves toward a more competitive environment in which the private actors become the main players it is essential to develop policies that will reduce the disparities between urban and rural telecommunications services This report provides a comprehensive analysis of the technical and financial parameters that have to be considered in formulating such policies It presents an array of options for commercial operation of rural telecommunications and challenges the general perception that rural telecommunications services are unprofitable It demonstrates that services can be economically delivered to rural areas at affordable prices while simultaneously providing reasonable financial returns to investors A planning tool kit is included that assists in the design of the various options

Fostering Sustainable Development Nwanze Okidegbe, 1997-01-01 Peace and reconstruction efforts in 1996 dramatically altered the landscape of Bosnia and Herzegovina and brought many tangible benefits to its people These efforts have already led to improvements in the areas of health education unemployment and infrastructure repair Sustaining and broadening the positive developments of the past year will be the key task for the country and the international community in 1997-98 This country study examines the near term reform issues that are essential to generating employment and providing a firm institutional and policy foundation for reconstruction and sustained economic growth The main areas of emphasis will be on policy and budget reforms involving institutions for macroeconomic management and bank and enterprise privatization and reforms affecting labor markets and the social safety net Poverty Reduction and Human Development in the Caribbean Judy L. Baker, 1997-01-01 World Bank Discussion Paper No 366 Despite impressive success in improving living conditions in many Caribbean countries poverty still persists throughout the region This study seeks to improve our understanding of poverty in the Caribbean and the current efforts to address it It analyzes the causes and characteristics of poverty in 15 Caribbean countries and reviews the experiences with the poverty and alleviation efforts that countries have pursued Prepared for the 1996 meeting of the Caribbean Group for Cooperation in Economic Development this report provides recommendations on how macroeconomic and social policies can be further oriented to reduce poverty and promote human resource development Financial Incentives for Renewable Energy Development ,1998-01-01 The World Bank is providing assistance to the Government of China to help develop recommendations for changes to China s present system of financial incentives for commercial renewable energy development This book reports on a Bank workshop that examined international experience with financial incentives for grid connected wind power systems and off grid photovoltaic systems in the United Kingdom Germany the Netherlands Denmark the United States California India and China The collective experiences of the countries were further examined to indicate other directions for developing financial incentives for market based renewable energy development as well as the underlying reasons for these tendencies Transforming Bangladesh Into a Middle Income Economy Sadiq Ahmed, 2005 Over the past 33 years rising from the ruins of a war devastated economy in 1972 BNdesh has increased its per capita income four fold cut poverty by more than half and is well set to achieve most of the millennium development goals What factors h Bangladesh in the New Millennium Mohiuddin Ahmad, 2000
