Academic libraries Joseph Andrew McDonald,Lynda Basney Micikas,1994-03-23 This book offers a completely new approach to the measurement of academic library effectiveness Based on a significant empirical investigation it contradicts established practices such as the measurement of outputs as indicators of effectiveness and the tendency to focus the evaluation of library effectiveness on the success of isolated activities The book also explores in detail the fundamental inadequacy of library based bibliographic instruction and information seeking skills development It argues that a student learns in order to become information literate and does not become information literate in order to learn In so doing it challenges much of the accepted wisdom in libraries and information technology Community College Review ,1986

Handbook of Task Analysis Procedures David H Jonassen,Wallace Hannum,Martin Tessmer,1989-06-26 Task Analysis is not only the most important component of Instructional Design but also the most often misconstrued and poorly executed Starting with this premise these authors have developed a complete reference and instructional text on Task Analysis The Handbook of Task Analysis Procedures fulfills three distinct purposes As an overview of the field it presents a comprehensive collection of functions techniques and tools that can be used in a variety of settings Thirty five different procedures are cataloged and described in individual chapters Providing flowcharts and examples it is organized to instruct the reader on how to perform these techniques Finally all chapters have been consistently structed making it an ideal reference book Handbook of Task Analysis Procedures is designed to help the reader select a specific task analysis technique for a particular situation Having done this the reader can then refer to the appropriate chapter for his chosen technique This chapter provides a statement of purpose an overview and applications It then presents a step by step description of how to use the procedure The chapter concludes with examples an evaluation and a complete set of references Designed to be used in education and by trainers in the business sector this volume is a unique reference book Part I provides an overview of Task Analysis and describes the variables that affect how task analysis is performed A decision table and discussion help the reader select specific techniques The techniques are grouped in Part II III and IV according to their functional similarity learning analysis job analysis content analysis Part V describes information gathering tools This Handbook is essential for the reader who believes that competent task analysis is a vital part of instructional design Assessment Methods for Student Affairs John H. Schuh and Associates,2011-01-06 Editor John Schuh and his fellow contributors all experts in the field detail the methodological aspects of conducting assessment projects specifically for the student affairs practitioner who is ready to conduct assessment projects but is not quite sure how to manage their technical aspects Using a variety of case studies and concrete examples to illustrate various assessment approaches the authors lead the reader step by step through each phase of the assessment process with jargon free hands on guidance Reference Sources Association for Institutional Research,1993 This bibliography is intended to provide lists of useful references annotated where possible in areas of concern to institutional researchers and planners The bibliography covers approximately 400 publications most published in the 1980s and early 90s It is organized into the following 17 major topics accreditation assessment budget and finance college student characteristics curriculum and instruction facilities space utilization and scheduling human resources information technology intercollegiate athletics interinstitutional comparisons and national data bases planning policy analysis predictions of academic performance retention and enrollment management statistics theory and applications of institutional research and total quality management GLR Key Resources on Student Services Albert B. Hood,Cathann Arceneaux,1990-03-09 This is an authoritative annotated guide to key monographs books and journals on the multifaceted field of student services and student development within colleges and universities This book provides a convenient reference to the most significant literature published since 1980 A New Approach to Continuing Education for Business and the Professions Philip M.
