

The background of the cover is an aerial photograph of a complex highway interchange with multiple overpasses and ramps. In the upper foreground, there is a large, metallic, industrial-looking structure, possibly a piece of machinery or a modern architectural element, with a red line running across it. The title text is overlaid on the center of the image.

Deterritorialisations Revisioning Landscapes And Politics:

Deterritorialisations ... Mark Dorrian, Gillian Rose, 2003 In recent years landscape has become increasingly recognised as a topic of central importance to a wide variety of disciplines To a large degree this recognition has been based upon an expanding appreciation of the political aspects of landscape its ideological character and effects Landscapes and Politics is an innovative cross disciplinary volume of new writing which brings together in a strategic and productive encounter a broad variety of critical work currently being done in this field With 28 papers and five photo essays Landscapes and Politics presents material by scholars and practitioners from anthropology archaeology architecture art history cultural studies English and American literature film studies fine art geography history landscape architecture philosophy political science and religious studies As an important marker of current methodologies research and practice across these different disciplinary areas Landscapes and Politics is an invaluable resource It will be of interest to all those concerned with current discourses and debates on landscape and its representation

Transnational Landscapes and Postmodern Poetics

Asma Hichri, Samira Mechri, 2017-11-06 This book moves beyond conventional conceptions of space and place to explore how the spatial imagination has informed our postmodern mapping of literature culture history geography and politics In this volume scholars from different academic fields contest new territories for critical expression venturing into a geocritical discussion of notions of identity borders territory cognitive geographies glocal cultural mobility gendered spaces post colonial cartographies and spaces of resistance These brilliant discussions of the postmodern dialectics of space and place invite a reappraisal of the value of space in our social political and historical realities thus extending the geographical imagination beyond its physical and territorial manifestations and investigating its hitherto uncharted spiritual psychic emotional literary and symbolic terrains Bringing together theoretical and critical contributions in the fields of culture history politics and literature this engaging work invites readers to think geocritically about the significance of space and place in the postmodern age It represents essential reading for students critics and scholars from various academic fields and disciplines including history geography cultural studies anthropology political science literature and critical theory

Communities Across Borders Paul Kennedy, Victor Roudometof, 2003-08-27 Communities across Borders examines the many ways in which national ethnic or religious groups professions businesses and cultures are becoming increasingly tangled together It show how this entanglement is the result of the vast flows of people meanings goods and money that now migrate between countries and world regions Now the effectiveness and significance of electronic technologies for interpersonal communication including cyber communities and the interconnectedness of the global world economy simultaneously empowers even the poorest people to forge effective cultures stretching national borders and compels many to do so to escape injustice and deprivation

Movement and Performance in Berlin School Cinema

Olivia Landry, 2019-02-08 Through a study of the contemporary German film movement the Berlin School Olivia Landry examines how narrative film has responded to our highly digitalized and mediatized age not with a focus on stasis and realism but by turning back to movement spectacle and performance She argues that a preoccupation with presence liveness and affect all of which are viewed as critical components of live performance can be found in many of the films of the Berlin School Challenging the perception that the Berlin School is a sheer adherent of slow cinema Landry closely analyzes the use of movement dynamism presence and speed in a broad selection of films to show how filmmakers such as Christian Petzold Angela Schanelec Thomas Arslan and Christoph Hochh usler invoke the pulse of the kinesthetic and the tangibly affective Her analysis draws on an array of film theories from early materialism to body theories phenomenology and contemporary affect theories Arguing that these theories readily and energetically forge a path from film to performance Landry traces a trajectory between the two through which live experience presence spectacle intersubjectivity and the body in motion emerge and powerfully intersect Ultimately Movement and Performance in Berlin School Cinema expands the methodological and disciplinary boundaries of film studies by offering new ways of articulating and understanding movement in cinema

Beyond the Land Melissa Weininger, 2023-08-29 A re evaluation of the meaning and function of diaspora in contemporary Israeli culture This thought provoking exploration of literature and art examines contemporary Israeli works created in and about diaspora that exemplify new ways of envisioning a Jewish national identity Diaspora has become a popular mechanism to imagine non sovereign models of Jewish peoplehood but these models often valorize powerlessness in sometimes troubling ways In this book Melissa Weininger theorizes a new category of diaspora Israeli culture that is formed around and through notions of homeland and complicate the binary between diaspora and Israel The works addressed here inhabit and imagine diaspora from the vantage point of the putative homeland engaging both diasporic and Zionist models simultaneously through language geography and imagination These examples contend with the existence of the state of Israel and its complex implications for diaspora Jewish identities and nationalisms as well as the implications for Zionism of those diasporic conceptions of Jewish national identity This dynamic understanding of both an Israeli and a Jewish diaspora works to envision a non hegemonic Jewish nationalism that can negotiate both political imagination and reality Transforming Pedagogies Through Engagement with Learners, Teachers and Communities Dat Bao, Thanh Pham, 2021-06-12 This book identifies three types of influential forces that pose challenges to innovations socio cultural dynamics teacher individuality and local circumstances It uses languages cultural traits and intellectual heritages in the Asia Pacific region as an example to show the resistance to Western based pedagogies due to disparities between the innovations and these local heritages It reveals personal and professional values that teachers hold and how these values while seemingly supporting creative ideologies happen to prevent them from incorporating innovations in their practices The book discusses how informal educational activities and services that a society possesses could impede pedagogical innovations There is therefore a need for institutions and educators to develop a positive relationship between these phenomena and teaching innovations New York and Toronto Novels after Postmodernism Caroline Rosenthal, 2011 Cities are material and symbolic spaces through which nations define their cultural identities The great cities that have arisen on the North American continent have stimulated the imaginations of the United States and Canada in very different ways This first comparative study of North American urban fiction starts out by delineating the sociohistorical and literary contexts in which cities grew into diverging symbolic spaces in American and Canadian culture After an overview of recent developments in the cultural conception of urban space the book takes New York and Toronto fiction as exemplary for exploring representations of the urban after postmodernism It analyzes four twenty first century novels two set in New York Siri Hustvedt's What I Loved and Paule Marshall's The Fisher King and two set in Toronto Carol Shields's Unless and Dionne Brand's What We All Long For While these texts continue to echo the specific traditions of nation building and canon formation in the United States and Canada they also share certain features All of them investigate the affective crossroads of the city while returning to a more realistic mode of representation Caroline Rosenthal is Professor of American Literature at the Friedrich Schiller University in Jena Germany

The Culture of Migration Sten Pultz Mosland, Ann Ring Petersen, 2015-06-30 Migration has been a phenomenon throughout human history but today as a result of economic hardship conflict and globalization a higher percentage of people than ever before live outside their country of birth Increased international migration has resulted in more movement of information traditions and cultures Migration acts as a catalyst not only for social change but also for the generation of new aesthetic phenomena The Culture of Migration explores the ways in which culture and the arts have been transformed by migration in recent decades and in turn how these cultural and aesthetic transformations have contributed to shaping our identities politics and societies Making an important contribution to the emerging cross disciplinary field of migration studies this book examines contemporary cultural and artistic representations of migration and gathers new perspectives on the subject from across the disciplines of the arts and humanities Renowned and emerging scholars in the field of migration culture and aesthetics among them the distinguished theorists Mieke Bal Nikos Papastergiadis Roger Bromley and Edward Casey address the broader themes and underlying discourses of recent studies in migration and culture

Belonging and Transnational Refugee Settlement Jay Marlowe, 2017-09-11 The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781315268958> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license The image we have of refugees is one of displacement from their homes families and countries and yet refugee settlement is increasingly becoming an experience of living simultaneously in places both proximate and distant as people navigate and transcend international borders in numerous and novel ways At the same time border regimes remain central in defining the possibilities and constraints of meaningful settlement This book examines the implications of belonging in numerous places as increased mobilities and digital access create new global connectedness in uneven and unexpected ways Belonging and Transnational Refugee Settlement positions refugee settlement as an ongoing transnational experience and identifies the importance of multiple belongings through several case studies based on original research in Australia and New Zealand as well as at sites in the US Canada and the UK Demonstrating the interplay between everyday and extraordinary experiences and broadening the dominant refugee discourses this book critiques the notion that meaningful settlement necessarily occurs in local places The author focuses on the extraordinary events of trauma and disasters alongside the everyday lives of refugees undertaking settlement to provide a conceptual framework that embraces and honours the complexities of working with the trauma story and identifies approaches to see beyond it This book will appeal to those with an interest in migration and diaspora studies human geography and sociology web this is the maxwell boltzmann distribution note that velocities range from 0 to  $\infty$  to write the probability distribution  $p(v) dv$  so that the maxwell boltzmann distribution is correctly normalized we require  $\int_0^\infty p(v) dv = 1$  from integral tables we see that  $\int_0^\infty v^2 e^{-\frac{1}{2}mv^2} dv = \frac{1}{2} \sqrt{\frac{2\pi}{m}}$
