Development Social Change A Global P:

Development and Social Change Philip McMichael, Heloise Weber, 2020-12-15 Development and Social Change A Global Perspective describes the dramatic acceleration of the global and political economy in four parts colonialism the development era the current era of globalization and global counter movements for equity and sustainability Development and Social Change Philip McMichael, 2012 Explores development through historical narrative and examines the globalization development paradox through in depth case studies In his Fifth Edition of Development and Social Change A Global Perspective author Philip McMichael examines the project of globalization and its instabilities climate energy food financial crises through the lens of development and its origins in the colonial project The book continues to help students make sense of a complex world in transition and explains how globalization became part of public discourse Filled with case studies this text makes the intricacies of globalization concrete meaningful and clear for students and moves them away from simple social evolutionary views encouraging them to connect social change development policies global inequalities and social movements The book challenges students to see themselves as global citizens whose consumption decisions have real social and ecological implications Key Features a world historical perspective that situates globalization in the declining fortunes of the postwar development project and considers current global limits and possibilities a political perspective that views development and globalization as discursive practices managed by historic elite groupings as mechanisms of power and world ordering an ecological perspective drawing attention to the environmental consequences of development and attempts to reintegrate social life in ecological cycles an emphasis on resistance and social movements as actors shaping the meaning and direction of these projects in addition to building alternatives a series of case studies that allow in depth examination of development globalization dilemmas and paradoxes to interrupt the idea of a linear process New to the Fifth Edition developmental impacts of the rise of the BRICS structural adjustment and new inequalities come to the global North de growth philosophies the re centering of agriculture in light of the food energy and climate crises land grabbing and biofuels green technologies and climate proofing transition towns and re localization new democratic movements The Sustainability of Rural Systems I.R. Bowler, C.R. Bryant, C. Cocklin, 2002-03-31 This book examines the interaction of the dimensions of economy society and environment in the context of rural systems It embraces a wide range of topics including globalization and reregulation in sustainable food production conservation and sustainability the development of sustainable rural communities and sustainable rural urban interaction It is relevant to advanced level students teachers researchers policymakers and agency workers The Handbook of Social Work and Social Development in Africa Mel Gray, 2016-10-26 All recent books on international social work mention Africa only briefly and few engage with the broader field of development studies This book focuses solely on the unique African context engaging with issues relating to social work and development more broadly thus enabling a deeper examination and more complex and nuanced picture to emerge

Unlike most academic works this book highlights multiple practitioner voices with authors or co authors that have recently been or are currently practising social workers As an edited book it draws from both academic research as well as lived practice experience supported by strong theoretical positioning and guidance in introductory chapters drawing on African literature wherever possible Looking at case studies from Lesotho Botswana Kenya Zimbabwe Ethiopia Namibia Uganda Nigeria Kenya South Africa Rwanda Zambia and Tanzania and covering established areas of practice such as child protection working with older people working with people with disabilities mental health and mainstream services targeting women as well as emerging areas of developmental social work practice such as humanitarian assistance in post conflict situations work with immigrants and refugees and the training of community based workers this book takes a future oriented perspective that aims to move beyond well worn critiques to envision constructive and sustainable futures for social work and social development in Africa from a critical perspective

New Directions in Social Education Research Brad M. Maguth, 2013-02-01

Through rapid developments in commerce transportation and communication people once separated by space language and politics are now interwoven into a complex global system Friedman 2005 With the rise of new technology local populations businesses and states are better equipped to participate and act in a thriving international environment Rising instability in the Middle East is immediately reported to oil and gas brokers in the U S Within seconds cable channels iPods social networking sites and cell phones are relaying how protests in Egypt and Libya give hope to citizens around the world yearning for freedom As events like 9 11 and the 2008 Financial Crisis have demonstrated there is no retreating from the interconnectedness of the global system As societies strive to empower citizens with the skills understandings and dispositions needed to operate in an interconnected global age teachers are being encouraged to help students use technologies to develop new knowledge and foster cross cultural understandings As pressures mount for society to equip today s youth with both the global and digital understandings necessary to confront the challenges of the 21st century a more thorough analysis must be undertaken to examine the role of technology on student learning Peters 2009 This work will highlight the complex contested and contingent ways new technologies are being used by today s youth in a digital and global age This text will present audiences with in demand research that investigates the ways in which student use of technology mediates and complicates their learning about the world its people and global issues Decolonised and Developmental Social Work Raj Yadav,2019-04-01 This is the first book to cover existing debates on decolonising and developmental social work whilst equipping readers with the understanding of how to translate the idea of decolonisation of social work into practice Using new empirical data and an extensive detail of social cultural and political dimensions of Nepal the author proposes a new model of decolonised and developmental social work that can be applicable to a wide range of countries and cultures By using interviews with Nepali social workers this text goes beyond mere theoretical approaches and uniquely positions itself in a way that embraces rigorous bottom up grounded theory method It will also further ongoing debates on globalisation localisation universalisation contextualisation outsider insider perspectives neoliberal rights and justice oriented social work and above all colonisation decolonisation of social work knowledge and practice It also promotes solidarity of and the struggle for progress for those in the margins of Western social work and development narrative through an emerging theory praxis of decolonised and developmental social work Decolonised and Developmental Social Work is essential reading for students academics and researchers of social work and development studies as well as those striving for a decolonial worldview Journalism for Social Change in Asia Scott Downman,Kasun Ubayasiri,2017-07-31 This book explores the role and purpose of journalism to spark and propagate change by investigating human rights journalism and its capacity to inform educate and activate change Downman and Ubayasiri maximize this approach by proposing a new paradigm of reporting through the use of human focussed news values This approach is a radical departure from the traditional style that typically builds on abstract concepts The book will explore human rights journalism through the lens of complex issues such as human trafficking and people smuggling in the Asian context This is not just a book for journalists or journalism academics but a book for activists human rights advocates or anyone who believes in the power of journalism to change the world Social Change and Development Alvin Y. So,1990-03 During the past four decades the field of development has been dominated by three schools of research The 1950s saw the modernization school the 1960s experienced the dependency school the 1970s developed the new world system school and the 1980s is a convergence of all three schools Alvin Y So examines the dynamic nature of these schools of development what each of them represents their contributions how they have criticized each other how they have defended themselves and how they were transformed He reviews a variety of empirical studies focusing on the classical and the new models to show how each of the perspectives affects the study of development In addition this book features a unique emphasis on the research implications of the three perspectives involving changes in orientation agenda methodology and findings International Journal of Contemporary Sociology ,2004 Resources in Education ,1980 Unesco List of Documents and Publications Unesco,1994 Handbook on Development and Social Change G. Honor Fagan,Ronaldo Munck,2018-03-30 This Handbook provides an accessible critical review of the complex issues surrounding development and social change today With chapters from recognized experts examining economic political and social aspects and covering key topics and developing regions it goes beyond current theory and sets out the debates which will shape an approach better suited to the modern world The Globalization and Development Reader J. Timmons Roberts, Amy Bellone Hite, Nitsan Chorev, 2014-12-31 This revised and updated second edition of The Globalization and Development Reader builds on the considerable success of a first edition that has been used around the world It combines selected readings and editorial material to provide a coherent text with global coverage reflecting new theoretical and empirical developments Main text and core reference for students and professionals studying the processes of social change and development in third world countries Carefully excerpted materials facilitate the understanding of classic and contemporary writings Second edition includes 33 essential readings including 21 new selections New pieces cover the impact of the recession in the global North global inequality and uneven development gender international migration the role of cities agriculture and on the governance of pharmaceuticals and climate change politics Increased coverage of China and India help to provide genuinely global coverage and for a student readership the materials have been subject to a higher degree of editing in the new edition Includes a general introduction to the field and short insightful section introductions to each reading New readings include selections by Alexander Gershenkron Alice Amsden Amartya Sen Anne Marie Slaughter Cecile Jackson Dani Rodrik David Harvey Greta Krippner Kathryn Sikkink Leslie Sklair Margaret E Keck Michael Burawoy Nitsan Chorev Oscar Lewis Patrick Bond Peter Evans Philip McMichael Pranab Bardhan Ruth Pearson Sarah Babb Saskia Sassen and Steve Radelet Lista Mundial de Revistas Especializadas en Ciencias Sociales Unesco, 1991 Social Change in the Southwest, 1350-1880 Thomas D.
