Development Juan Telleria,2020-12-09 This book provides a critical deconstruction of the human development framework promoted by the United Nations Development Programme UNDP since 1990 Taking the Human Development Reports of the UNDP as its starting point for reflection this book investigates the construction of this framework as well as its political function since the end of the Cold War The book argues that the UNDP s discourse on development relies on essentialist philosophical cultural and political assumptions dating back to the 19th century and concludes that these assumptions also present in the MDGs and SDGs impede a full grasp of the complex and multi layered global problems of the current world Whilst development critiques traditionally relied on liberal Marxist or Foucauldian theoretical frameworks and focused on epistemological or political economy issues this book draws on the post foundational and post structuralist work of Ernesto Laclau and Jacques Derrida and proposes an ontological and relational reading of development discourses that both complements and further develops the insights of previous critiques This book is key reading for advanced students and researchers of Critical Development Studies Political Science the UN and Sustainable Development Capitalism and Democracy in the Third World Paul Cammack,1997-01-01 Analyzes and interprets political development theory from a critical Marxist perspective The central theme is the emergence of a separate doctrine for political development in the wake of disillusionment with the prospects of building a universal theory interpreted by the author as a transitional program for the installation and consolidation of capitalist regimes in the Third World Topics include capitalism and democracy in the post war period the search for a theory of development functionalism political culture and the comparative historical approach Distributed by Books International Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Challenge of Third
