Expert Hybrid Work Schedule Ideas For Us Audience:

After the Media Peter Bennett, Alex Kendall, Julian McDougall, 2011-05-13 This provocative text considers the state of media and cultural studies today after the demolition of the traditional media paradigm and engages with the new active consumer culture Media Studies particularly within schools has until recently been concerned with mass media and the effects of the media in society and on people As new media technology has blurred the boundaries between the audience and the media the status of this area of education is threatened Whilst some have called for a drastic re think Media Studies 2 0 others have called for caution arguing that the power dynamics of ownership and gatekeeping are left intact This book uses cultural and technological change as a context for a more forensic exploration of the traditional dependence on the idea of the media as one homogenous unit It suggests that it would be liberating for students teachers and academics to depart from such a model and shift the focus to people and how they create culture in this contemporary mediascape

Museum Branding Margot Wallace, 2024-08-06 Museums have unequaled brands in the world of learning and culture They have earned the recognition and loyalty of their many audiences The challenge is sustaining image loyalty and support as audiences shift grow and change Museum Branding Reimagining the Museum is a forward looking survey of museums as they navigate the present and plan for the future holding steady to their heritage It looks at brands that have refreshed their identity reframed their missions and reconfirmed their right to audience loyalty and support Museums of all sizes genres and geography over forty of them exemplify audience centered branding practices outlined in nineteen chapters that include Collection and Exhibitions Archives Fundraising and Development Partnerships Talks and Speakers and Videos The chapter on Data adds a new perspective to branding literature The chapter on Discussion Groups builds on the branding sustained and advanced by successful virtual programs The Chapter on Research and Development gives essential priority developing relationships with prospective members donors and supporters The chapter on Publications shows the smart extension of branding into many platforms An extensive index recognizes the value of this tool for searching specific concepts and museums
