Expert Hybrid Work Schedule Ideas For Teachers:

What Brain Research Can Teach About Cutting School Budgets Karen D. Olsen, 2010-02-18 Karen Olsen has put budget topics into perspective so that school administrators can make decisions based on what is best for children not what is easiest and most efficient for adults This book is a powerful guide in helping our principals see through the fog of mandates policies and red tape and get to the priority of students Terri Patterson Director of Elementary Education Waco Independent School District TX This book boldly asserts that brain research should be applied wherever human brains are working Not only can and should brain research inform how and what we teach in the classroom it should be brought to bear in boardrooms and the school budgeting process as well Linda Jordan Associate Professor Hope College Make objective budget cutting decisions that will truly impact student achievement In tough economic environments budget cutting is a daunting but necessary task for many school administrators Karen D Olsen takes an exciting unique approach by applying brain research to budgeting Now educators can make the decision making process more objective by using analytical thinking in school budgeting rather than responding to emotion tradition or outside influences Providing a strategy builder chart this book Offers action items for putting the strategies into practice Helps leaders determine where money should be reinvested or reallocated Provides specific tips for working within a group decision making setting Includes more than 30 analytical charts to aid in gathering needed information What Brain Research Can Teach About Cutting School Budgets offers principals and district leaders a methodical process for taking subjectivity out of the budgeting process

Who Are You Who Are So Wise in the Science of Teaching? Rex R. Schultze J.D., 2021-02-10 Based upon years of reviewing the work product of building principal's evaluations of their teaching staff it has been evident to me there is a clear need to improve this critical aspect of school administration This book is designed to provide building principals and assistant principals with guidance on

- 1 the necessary preparation of the principal to be effective at guiding and coaching their staff
- 2 the laying of the foundation for their teachers to know the standard of performance expected by the school district as whole and the specific building where they serve guide and teach their students
- 3 the teaching of their instructional staff what constitutes good lesson planning and instruction as defined by the educational model adopted by the school and art of teaching under that model
- 4 developing the skills for the writing of effective teacher formative and summative evaluations to assist in the improvement of instruction and
- 5 the work required in 1 to 4 above to establish and qualify the principal as an expert witness under the Rules of Evidence if he/she is called upon to participate in the end game of moving an underperforming teacher along

The book is designed as a step by step process with reading assignments and self instruction tasks at the end of each chapter applying the concepts teaching supporting and assisting teachers in the science of teaching needed to develop maintain and excel at their craft It is shown scientifically that where teachers know the district's standards of performance student learning improves and students learn how to learn essential in today's ever changing society Being an effective building principal thus requires you to be an expert in your field i.e. that person who is rhetorically asked Who are you who are so wise in the science of teaching About the Author As you will surmise quickly in reading this book Rex Schultze has had the fortunate circumstance of being immersed in public education for his entire life from 1951 to the present as a teacher's and administrator's kid as a high school teacher for four years as the brother of an elementary school teacher and administrator and as a lawyer with a 40 year practice focused on public education both K 12 and community college levels As such he
