Book I* Eliphas Levi, 2021-07-15 Behind the veil of all the hieratic and mystical allegories of ancient doctrines behind the darkness and strange ordeals of all initiations under the seal of all sacred writings in the ruins of Nineveh or Thebes on the crumbling stones of old temples and on the blackened visage of the Assyrian or Egyptian sphinx in the monstrous or marvellous paintings which interpret to the faithful of India the inspired pages of the Vedas in the cryptic emblems of our old books on alchemy in the ceremonies practised at reception by all secret societies there are found indications of a doctrine which is everywhere the same and everywhere carefully concealed Occult philosophy seems to have been the nurse or god mother of all intellectual forces the key of all divine obscurities and the absolute queen of society in those ages when it was reserved exclusively for the education of priests and of kings It reigned in Persia with the Magi who perished in the end as perish all masters of the world because they abused their power it endowed India with the most wonderful traditions and with an incredible wealth of poesy grace and terror in its emblems it civilized Greece to the music of the lyre of Orpheus it concealed the principles of all sciences all progress of the human mind in the daring calculations of Pythagoras fable abounded in its miracles and history attempting to estimate this unknown power became confused with fable it undermined or consolidated empires by its oracles caused tyrants to tremble on their thrones and governed all minds either by curiosity or by fear Life and Matter Sir Oliver Lodge, 1907 Reason and Dogma, Or, Footprints of a Soul Henry Truro Bray, 1897 Modern Dogma and the Rhetoric of Assent Wayne C. Booth, 1974-10-15 When should I change my mind What can I believe and what must I doubt In this new philosophy of good reasons Wayne C Booth exposes five dogmas of modernism that have too often inhibited efforts to answer these questions Modern dogmas teach that you cannot reason about values and that the job of thought is to doubt whatever can be doubted and they leave those who accept them crippled in their efforts to think and talk together about whatever concerns them most They have willed upon us a befouled rhetorical climate in which people are driven to two self destructive extremes defenders of reason becoming confined to ever narrower notions of logical or experimental proof and defenders of values becoming more and more irresponsible in trying to defend the heart the gut or the gonads Booth traces the consequences of modernist assumptions through a wide range of inquiry and action in politics art music literature and in personal efforts to find identity or a self In casting doubt on systematic doubt the author finds that the dogmas are being questioned in almost every modern discipline Suggesting that they be replaced with a rhetoric of systematic assent Booth discovers a vast neglected reservoir of good reasons many of them known to classical students of rhetoric some still to be explored These good reasons are here restored to intellectual respectability suggesting the possibility of widespread new inquiry in all fields into the question When should I change my mind Man's Origin, Destiny, and Duty Hugh MacColl,1909
