Doing Theology In New Places:

Doing Theology in New Places Jean Pierre Jossua, Johannes Baptist Metz, 1979 Studying Local Churches Helen Cameron, Philip J. Richter, Douglas Davies, 2005-03-31 This practical handbook aimed at final year undergraduates Masters level students student ministers church leaders and policy makers interested in local faith communities guides readers through the various tools methods of analysis and research skills needed for studying local churches This resource takes full account of the UK context and is an ideal basis for students undertaking research projects and dissertations After an historical overview the handbook identifies theoretical foundations for the study of local churches drawing on the 4 disciplines of anthropology sociology organisational studies and theology Guidance is provided on both quantitative and qualitative research methods Research processes covered include such issues as selecting a church gaining access selecting methods analysing data maintaining confidentiality research reflexivity and completing the final report There is also a critical review of existing literature as well as case studies and worked examples demonstrating how key concepts from the 4 disciplines apply to actual local churches The handbook contains a wide range of contributors with extensive theoretical and practical experience of studying local churches

Pacific Well-Being Jione Havea, 2024-03-29 This book makes space 1 for Pasifika contributions to academic conversations on critical topics and 2 for influencing the conversations to account for and thus reflect Pasifika ways and modes The critical topic that runs through the chapters is well being and the contributors were located at the time of writing in Pasifika Aotearoa Fiji Kioa Kiribati Samoa Tonga and Tuvalu but there are many more Pasifika voices and concerns than are represented in this work Nonetheless the ways in which this work seeks to influence the conversations on well being reflect the intersectional modes of thinking that native Pasifika Islanders share The essays are placed into three intersecting clusters well being of bodies and is lands well being of traditions and theologies and well being of imaginations and worldviews The rationale for this arrangement is that the well being of Pasifika requires attention to the present bodies and islands to the past traditions and theologies and to the future imaginations and worldviews The chapters address Pasifika questions and concerns and they are placed so that the conversations they spark can take place free of the traps of Western theories and disciplines with Pasifika accents and rhythms

THE SECRET SERVICE CHURCH: FAITH SEEKING RELATEDNESS George Gammack, 2015-08-13 We all know what church is Likewise we are provided with a supply of set notions for God Christ and the Bible which make up the stock in trade equipment for both believer and non believer This study asks fundamental questions about all these from a relational perspective attempting to illumine the faith quest by way of clues from the common realities of human interaction In this it is the appropriate provisions of relationships rather than the assent to doctrines that forms the spiritual basis of community Such a theology of relatedness is urgently needed We must come out of our creedal closets to be part of a new diaspora This demands a secret discipline of servant relationship at work in that no man s land where there is space for all manner of secular saints and doctrinal devils to discover the possibilities of their togetherness the secret service church in odd places and often strange company

Leadership, God's Agency, and Disruptions Mark Lau Branson, Alan J. Roxburgh, 2021-02-16 Leaders in congregations and Christian organizations wrestle with an unraveling of the world in which they have little experience and training While they are offered unending resources by experts on leadership some with claims to biblical blueprints the challenges seem mismatched to those methods Branson and Roxburgh frame the situation as one in which modernity's wager the conviction that God is not necessary for life and wisdom and meaning has defined the Western imagination Because churches and leaders are colonized by this ethos even when God is named and beliefs are claimed approaches to leadership are blind to God's agency Branson and Roxburgh approach this challenge as a work in practical theology attending to our cultural context narratives of God's disruptive initiatives in Scripture and a reshaping of leadership theories with a priority on God's agency With years of experience as teachers consultants and guides they name practices which lead to more faithful participation Leadership God's Agency and Disruption is wide ranging in cultural and biblical scholarship challenging in its engagement with numerous leadership studies and practical with its focus toward the on the ground life of churches and organizations

The Habits of Race and Faith in a Religiously Diverse World Mara Brecht, 2024-07-08 Religious diversity cultural pluralism and interreligious encounter are widely viewed in modern life as socially and for many people of faith spiritually enriching One of the most significant but frequently overlooked benefits of interreligious encounter is that it empowers us to see ourselves and particularly our racialized identities in new and revealing ways In The Habits of Race and Faith in a Religiously Diverse World Mara Brecht places whiteness under particular scrutiny its tangled and entwined relationship with religious identity as well as strategic associations with dominance and privilege The analysis of whiteness gives way to fresh perspectives on Christian ideas about salvation both in connection to religious faith and racial embodiment
