Doing Tropology Analysis Of Narrative Discourse:

Doing Tropology James M. Mellard, 1987 Narratology Susana Onega, Jose Angel Garcia Landa, 2014-09-19 This text provides an excellent introduction and overview of Narratology a rapidly growing field in the humanities Literary narratologists have provided many key concepts and analytical tools which are widely used in the interdisciplinary analysis of such narrative features as plot point of view speech presentation ideological perspective and interpretation The introduction explains the central concepts of narratology their historical development and draws together contemporary trends from many different disciplines into common focus It offers a compendium of the development of narratology from classical poetics to the present The essays are all prefaced by individual forewords helping the reader to place each individual selection in context Recent developments are assessed across disciplines highlighting the mutual influences of narratology and deconstruction psychoanalysis feminism film and media studies Landscape Narratives Matthew Potteiger, Jamie Purinton, 1998-03-20 This text covers the most popular types of landscapes designed today from garden and park design historic preservation and restoration to community and regional planning What is Narratology? Tom Kindt, Hans-Harald Müller, 2003 Review text The series is a significant contribution to the flourishing scholarship in the area of narrative studies As one would expect with de Gruyter the volumes are handsome the paper quality typeface and layout pleasant and reader friendly even though with the first volume the editorial and production process seems to have included minor snags The volume provides a noteworthy cross section of current work in narratology as well as a selection of questions worth pursuing Sabine Gross in Monatshefte 1 2008 11 September and Its Aftermath Stanley D Brunn, 2004-08-02 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Beyond the Great Story Robert F. Berkhofer, 1995 What legitimate form can history take when faced by the severe challenges issued in recent years by literary rhetorical multiculturalist and feminist theories That is the question considered in this pathbreaking book Robert Berkhofer addresses the essential practical concern of contemporary historians The World is My Home Hamid Dabashi, 2011-12-31 As recent events indicate Iranian Middle Eastern and Islamic politics more broadly have been deeply influential in world affairs Hamid Dabashi has been a highly visible and prominent commentator on these affairs explaining interpreting and providing a critical perspective This volume gathers together his most influential and insightful writings As one of the foremost contemporary public intellectuals and scholars of our time Dabashi's interests and writings span subjects ranging from Islamic philosophy and political ideology to Iranian art and Persian literature from Sufism and Orientalism to Iranian and world cinema and contemporary Arab and Muslim visual arts and from postcolonial theory and globalization to imperialism and public affairs There is a direct connection between his theoretical innovations and the angle of his public interventions on the urgent global issues of the day This book brings together some of his most important writings especially those that offer new ways of understanding Islam Iran Islamist ideology global art and the condition of global modernity The book shows the underlying conceptual themes that unify Dabashi's wide ranging and brilliantly insightful corpus. Dabashi combines deep knowledge of the subject matter about which he writes and highly refined sociological hermeneutical and cultural interpretive skills moving far beyond the limiting distorted and intellectually stifling character of reigning absolutist conventions. He places existing authoritative frameworks under close scrutiny in order to produce novel and penetrating insights. These essays reflect historical and geographical worlds that are best viewed when Hamid Dabashi's work is read as a whole which this one volume work makes possible for the first time.

The Philosophy of Discourse Chip Sills, George H. Jensen, 1992 The Journal of Narrative Technique, 1987 CR. The Centennial Review, 1988 Approaches to Literature Through Literary Form Paula Kay Montgomery, 1995-11-10 The form in which literature is fashioned and presented often determines its impact. Approaches to Literature through Literary Form discusses the various structures of literature: narration, exposition, persuasion, procedure, and description, and identifies sources that will engage student interest. Activities, teaching techniques, and resources are provided for introducing the forms of literature that are explored.

Twentieth-century American Cultural Theorists Paul Hansom, 2001 This award winning series systematically presents career biographies of writers from all eras and all genres through volumes dedicated to specific types of literature and time periods.

Studies in Short Fiction, 1993 The Newsletter of the Society for the Study of Southern Literature Society for the Study of Southern Literature, 1990 The Faulkner Journal, 2006 Writing the Body in D.H. Lawrence Paul Poplawski, 2001-02-28 One of Lawrence's main concerns in his art was to explore and experiment with new ways of writing about the body. But with one or two notable exceptions few critics have systematically interrogated the broader ramifications of this concern especially in terms of contemporary theoretical debates about language representation and sexuality. This book remedies that situation by considering some of the social, cultural, and ideological contexts of Lawrence's writings of the body and by engaging closely with his texts from a range of pertinent theoretical positions. The essays included in this volume are written by experts from around the world. The contributors provide detailed discussions of specific major works by Lawrence and employ theoretical approaches which give special attention to language representation and sexuality including postmodernism, Marxism, structuralism, the sociology of censorship, Freudian and Jungian psychoanalysis, feminism, and gender studies and narrative theory. While Lawrence's major novels and short stories provide the main focus for the volume, the book also examines his lesser known writings including unfinished story fragments, introductions, and forewords, and literary and journalistic essays.

Faulkner in the Eighties John E. Bassett, 1991-10 This bibliography brings up through 1989 the comprehensive listing of scholarship and criticism on William Faulkner begun by Bassett in two earlier books: William Faulkner: An Annotated Checklist of Criticism 1972 and Faulkner: An Annotated Checklist of Recent Criticism 1983. Since the latter over a hundred books on Faulkner have been completed along with hundreds of articles and dissertations. This work lists all new items often with extensive annotations and provides separate entries for chapters of books that cover individual novels and stories Bassett's introductory essay provides an overview of the last decade of Faulkner studies the first in which post structuralist and other newer forms of criticism had a major impact on Faulkner studies The Novel in the Americas Raymond L. Williams, 1992 The Novel in the Americas contains thirteen provocative and timely essays by leading writers and scholars of the Americas These essays touch deeply on issues regarding the role of art and critical thought in modern or postmodern cultures All of the writers cross and question boundaries geographic linguistic and disciplinary in their reflections on where we are today where we have been and where we can possibly go at the dawn of the twenty first century Included are works by Carlos Fuentes Maxine Hong Kingston William H Gass Larry McCaffrey and others Every writer names the world But the Latin American writer has been possessed by the urgency to discover states Carlos Fuentes in the opening lines of this volume Fuentes and a host of other distinguished intellectuals have been possessed by this urgency to discover and the equally possessed Critical Studies of the Americas Committee of the University of Colorado at Boulder has spent four years organizing an inter American dialog on the novel and the cultures of the Americas This book presents a selection of some of the most fascinating moments of this multicultural exchange The Novel in the Americas is the first volume in a new series from The Critical Studies of the Americas Committee Each volume will provide interdisciplinary views on the Americas North and South as seen by major scholars from throughout Latin America the Caribbean the United States and Canada The Arizona Quarterly, 2002 Theorizing Lawrence Gerald Doherty, 1999 These nine meditations employ a variety of structuralist and poststructuralist critical methodologies by way of illuminating some of Lawrence's major works Sons and Lovers The Rainbow Women in Love Lady Chatterley's Lover and several short stories The main approach is tropological that is these works are explored in terms of their rhetorical tropes most often in terms of metaphor and metonymy The meditations also draw significantly on narratology psychoanalysis and deconstruction Lawrence has not previously attracted such contemporary approaches
