Doisneau Portfolio:

The Paris Zone James Cannon, 2016-02-24 Since the mid 1970s the colloquial term zone has often been associated with the troubled post war housing estates on the outskirts of large French cities However it once referred to a more circumscribed space the zone non aedificandi non building zone which encircled Paris from the 1840s to the 1940s This unusual territory although marginal in a social and geographical sense came to occupy a central place in Parisian culture Previous studies have focused on its urban and social history or on particular ways in which it was represented during particular periods By bringing together and analysing a wider range of sources from the duration of the zone s existence this study offers a rich and nuanced account of how the area was perceived and used by successive generations of Parisian novelists including Zola and Flaubert poets songwriters artists photographers film makers politicians and town planners More generally it aims to raise awareness of a neglected aspect of Parisian cultural history while pointing to links between current and past perceptions of the city s periphery

The Rhetoric of Photography in Modern Japanese Literature Atsuko Sakaki, 2015-10-20

In The Rhetoric of Photography in Modern Japanese Literature Atsuko Sakaki closely examines photography inspired texts by four Japanese novelists Tanizaki Jun ichir 1886-1965 Abe K b 1924-93 Horie Toshiyuki b 1964 and Kanai Mieko b 1947 As connoisseurs practitioners or critics of this visual medium these authors look beyond photographs status as images that document and verify empirical incidents and existences articulating instead the physical process of photographic production and photographs material presence in human lives This book offers insight into the engagement with photography in Japanese literary texts as a means of bringing forgotten subject object dynamics to light It calls for a fundamental reconfiguration of the parameters of modern print culture and its presumption of the transparency of agents of representation
