Dolphins And Me:

The Dolphins and Me , Behind the Dolphin Smile Richard O'Barry, Keith Coulbourn, 2000-07-07 People who have faced death often speak of their lives flashing before their eyes. Something much different happened to dolphin trainer Richard O'Barry when one of the dolphins that played Flipper on television died of stress in his arms. He realized that most of his career as an animal trainer had been a mistake and that dolphins have as much right to freedom as humans. He vowed not to rest until he freed every last dolphin that could be returned to the wild successfully. This is a true story that will move not only animal lovers but everyone who loves a well told tale. Ric O'Barry had everything: money, flashy cars, pretty women, but it wasn't enough to keep his conscience at bay. He began to understand that dolphins were easy to train because of their great intelligence, not his great talent, and keeping them in captivity was cruel and morally wrong. While research and entertainment are important to human life, they are not worth the cost to these beautiful and gentle animals. O'Barry was arrested trying to free a dolphin, but that didn't stop him, and he now devotes his life to untraining dolphins and returning them to their natural habitats. Once the pride of the billion dollar dolphin captivity industry, he has since become its nemesis.

Dolphins and Me Sarah Harvey, 2022-09-27 Some dolphins look as if they are smiling. They talk to each other using clicks, squeaks, and whistles just the way you talk using words. Find out the many ways you and dolphins connect, even though you don't live in the ocean. This project has been made possible in part by the Government of Canada. Boys' Life , 1990-02 Boys' Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America. Published since 1911, it contains a proven mix of news, nature, sports, history, fiction, science, comics, and Scouting. Build Me an Ark Brenda Peterson, 2001 Raised in the High Sierras, Brenda Peterson was influenced daily by wildlife. Here she explores her deep connection with animals, from watching grizzlies in Montana's Rockies to her work for the restoration of wild wolves in the West, and includes intimate stories of wild dolphins, whales, and orcas she has studied for 20 years. 17 photos. The Dolphins and Me Don C.
