Domesticating Slavery The Master Class In Georgia And South Carolina 1670 1837:

Domesticating Slavery Jeffrey Robert Young, 1999      Slavery and Servitude in Colonial North America Kenneth Morgan, 2001-08 Kenneth Morgan shows how the institutions of indentured servitude and black slavery interacted in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries He covers all aspects of the two labor systems including their impact on the economy on racial attitudes social structures and on regional variations within the colonies Throughout overriding themes emerge the labor market in North America for indentured servants the significance of racial distinctions supply and demand factors in transatlantic migration and labor and resistance to bondage      The Jewish South Shari Rabin, 2025-04-01 A panoramic history of the Jewish American South from European colonization to today In 1669 the Carolina colony issued the Fundamental Constitutions of Carolina which offered freedom of worship to Jews heathens and other dissenters ushering in an era that would see Jews settle in cities and towns throughout what would become the Confederate States The Jewish South tells their stories and those of their descendants and coreligionists who followed providing the first narrative history of southern Jews Drawing on a wealth of original archival findings spanning three centuries Shari Rabin sheds new light on the complicated decisions that southern Jews made as individuals families and communities to fit into a society built on Native land and enslaved labor and to maintain forms of Jewish difference often through religious innovation and adaptation She paints a richly textured and sometimes troubling portrait of the period exploring how southern Jews have been targets of antisemitism and violence but also complicit in racial injustice Rabin considers Jewish immigration and institution building participation in the Civil War the 1915 lynching of Leo Frank and Jewish support for and resistance to the modern fight for Black civil rights She examines shifting understandings of Jewishness highlighting both the reality of religious diversity and the ongoing role of Christianity in defining the region Recovering a neglected facet of the American experience The Jewish South enables readers to see the South through the eyes of people with a distinctive religious heritage and a southern history older than the United States itself      Slavery and Sin Molly Oshatz, 2012 In this groundbreaking examination of the antislavery origins of liberal Protestantism Molly Oshatz contends that the antebellum slavery debates forced antislavery Protestants to adopt an historicist understanding of truth and morality Unlike earlier debates over slavery in antebellum America the key question was whether slavery was a sin in the abstract Unable to use the letter of the Bible to answer the claim that slavery was not a sin in and of itself antislavery Protestants argued that biblical principles required opposition to slavery and that God revealed slavery's sinfulness through the gradual unfolding of these principles Although they believed that slavery was a sin antislavery Protestants' sympathy for individual slaveholders and their knowledge of the Bible made them reluctant to denounce all slaveholders as sinners In order to reconcile slavery's sinfulness with their commitments to the Bible and to the Union antislavery Protestants defined slavery as a social rather than an individual sin Oshatz demonstrates that the antislavery notions of progressive revelation and social sin had radical implications for Protestant theology Oshatz carries her study through the Civil War to reveal how emancipation confirmed for northern Protestants the notion that God revealed His will through history She reveals how after the war a new generation of liberal theologians drew on this experience to respond to evolution and historical biblical criticism Slavery and Sin provides critical insight into how the theological innovations rooted in the slavery debates came to fruition in liberal Protestantism's acceptance of the historical and evolutionary nature of religious truth Encyclopedia of African American History 1619-1895 Paul Finkelman, 2006 Publisher Description Manumission, Slavery and Family in the Post-revolutionary Rural Chesapeake John Joseph Condon, 2001 The Eighteenth Century Kevin L.
