Dona Lola:

Pike St. Nilaja Sun, 2017-09-15 Pike St Nilaja Sun's highly praised sixth play vividly brings to life a family on New York's Lower East Side. As a storm approaches, Evelyn is trying to assure the safety of her teenage daughter Candi, whose unidentified illness has immobilized her. Caring for Candi has forced Evelyn to quit her job as a subway conductor, still she helps support both her philandering father and her brother who has returned to New York from Afghanistan and suffers from PTSD. Just behind the grace and humor with which Evelyn manages to hold together her own life and those of the people who depend on her is the constant threat of both natural and man-made disasters. Maria's Journey Ramon Arredondo, Trisha Hull Arredondo, 2010 Born into the Mexican Revolution, Maria Perez entered an arranged marriage at age fourteen to Miguel Arredondo. The couple and their tiny daughter immigrated to the United States in the 1920s, living in a boxcar while Miguel worked for a Texas railroad and eventually settling in East Chicago, Indiana, where Miguel worked for Inland Steel. Their story includes much of early twentieth-century America: the rise of unions, the plunge into the Great Depression, the patriotism of World War II, and the starkness of McCarthyism. It is flavored by delivery men hawking fruit and ice, street sports, and Saturday matinees that began with newsreels. Immigration status, colors, every scene adding to their story: deportation and citizenship, generational problems unique to new immigrants, and a miraculous message of hope. Mummified Deer and Other Plays Luis Valdez, 2005-04-30 For more than twenty years, Luis Valdez, the most distinguished Latino playwright and director, has reserved most of his scripts for live stage productions. His two landmark published collections, Early Works and Zoot Suit and Other Plays, are only a sampling of his early master works and of the later plays that made it to the stage in the 1980s. Now Valdez has finally opened his trunk to release print editions of a revised early work and two brand-new major dramas. Mummified Deer is Valdez's mature exploration of the Yaqui Indian roots of Mexican American culture and Valdez's own family. Returning to the format of the tent show, Valdez mines maternal psychology and Yaqui mysticism to demand that characters scale the full gamut of emotions. In this gut-wrenching piece, Mama Chu is the dominant, imposing figure who must reconcile the present with the past and unify the conflicting histories and identities of her family. Mundo Mata is the long-awaited drama of unionizing farm workers battling the agribusiness power structure in California while Mexican Americans are being sent off to battle brown-skinned enemies in Vietnam. Valdez assesses the toll that families have to pay to remain united against divisive forces. It all comes down to Reymundo, the antihero who, in the end, must weigh existential and political questions. The Shrunken Head of Pancho Villa Valdez's reworked first play still holds all the vision, spunk, and innovation of the young playwright. Injecting black humor into domestic drama, disembodied heads talk, mothers exchange roles with the patriarch, pachucos banter, and sell-outs become the mouthpieces for an oppressed community. All characters and themes that would dominate future plays of Valdez and subsequent Chicano literature. Hilda Hurricane Roberto Drummond, Peter Vaudry-Brown, 2010-09-01 Eighteen-year-old Hilda, known as the girl in the gold bikini when she swam at her country club in

Belo Horizonte Brazil abruptly leaves the gilded life to take up residence in room 304 of the Hotel Marvelous as a prostitute There she becomes Hilda Hurricane an erotic force of nature no man can resist The exception is reporter narrator Roberto Drummond who attempts to unravel the mystery of why the girl in the gold bikini would forego a comfortable life to join the world s oldest profession While some in Belo Horizonte cheer Hilda s liberated lifestyle others seek to have her moved outside the city limits and a would be saint cannot seem to finish the exorcism he began outside the Hotel Marvelous Set against the social and political upheaval of the 1960s Hilda s story seduces even as Drummond becomes aware of more ominous forces approaching Belo Horizonte Hilda Hurricane was both a critical and a commercial success in Brazil with more than 200 000 copies sold The DVD of the television adaptation has sold more than a million copies Admirers of Kurt Vonnegut will revel in Drummond s similarly sharp satire and playful digressions particularly about left wing politics which blur the boundary between fiction and autobiography Yet the real genius of the author s interventions may be that they never slow the story long enough to lose sight of this mysterious beauty swept up in the turmoil of the times

Cuentos from the House on West Connecticut Avenue Marta A. Lomeli, 2004-05-03 Cuentos from the House on West Connecticut Avenue began as a writing exercise in a teachers seminar The assignment was to write about your first house with as much detail as possible As I wrote I remembered and began to lose track of time That is how the first story The Bottom Drawer came into existence Were there more stories in me Ones that others could relate to Oh yes In And Then Came Eloisa you will remember the houseguest that overstayed her welcome The Green American blends comedy and sadness in dealing with the subject of racism The two Christmas stories that are included are examples of how some families deal with the challenges of maintaining important values and allowing for change Hysterically funny and always thought provoking Cuentos lets you experience what it was like growing up eating rice and beans and believing that you could teach others to fly Filled with rich evocative language each story lets you see how the future is shaped by how we see our past
