Donald Campbell The Man Behind The:

Donald Campbell David Tremayne, 2011-09-30 Generations are familiar with the haunting black and white television footage of Donald Campbell somersaulting to his death in his famous Bluebird boat on Coniston Water in January 1967. It has become an iconic image of the decade. His towering achievements and the drama of his passing are thus part of the national psyche. But what of the man himself? The son of the legendary Sir Malcolm Campbell, who was famous for being the ultimate record breaker of the inter-war years, he broke the land speed record nine times and the water speed record four times with his Bluebird cars and boats. Donald Campbell was born to speed. He was outgoing and flamboyant yet carefully orchestrated the image he presented to the world. Some saw him as a playboy adventurer; others, such as the radio producer on the twenty-first anniversary of his death, as a reckless daredevil with a death wish. He was known to take solace in extra-marital dalliances and was obsessed with spiritualism. And in his final years, battered by a 360 mph accident while attempting the land record on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah, and his prolonged and anti-climactic subsequent effort on the treacherous Lake Eyre in Australia, Campbell appeared a haggard and often frightened man. He had become trapped on his record breaker's treadmill as he continually sought to prove himself to his illustrious father, in whose long shadow he felt forever trapped. DONALD CAMPBELL: THE MAN BEHIND THE MASK paints a fascinating portrait of an intense, complex, superstitious yet abnormally brave man who was driven not only by the desire to prove that he was worthy of the mantle of his father but also by his fervent and unswerving desire to keep Britain at the forefront of international speed endeavour. This book generates a unique insight into how his desperate fear of failure finally lured him into taking one risk too many. The Person Behind the Syndrome Greta Beighton, 2012-12-06 A decade after the publication of The Man Behind the Syndrome, which was warmly received, particularly by medical geneticists, syndromologists, and those doctors from many different disciplines with an interest in medical history, Peter and Greta Beighton now present the second volume of their work, promised ten years ago. The length of time which has passed since the publication of the first book gives an inkling of the extraordinary effort involved on the part of the authors in collecting the necessary biographical data and the portraits of their subjects. The Person Behind the Syndrome conforms exactly in structure, quality, and size with the first volume, thus facilitating the use of the series. Again, we find detailed presentations of a hundred people who have given their names to disorders or syndromes which are thought to have a significant genetic or chromosomal component, with a photograph or portrait, biography, commentary on the development of nomenclature, and references. The reader finds information not only on the doctor and/or scientist under discussion but also, as in the previous volume, on the person behind the name. This is followed by brief, unillustrated biographies of about seventy mostly younger and, in some cases, still professionally active personalities. Land Speed Records Don Wales, 2018-03-22 The Land Speed Record is a fascinating story of human endeavour of man and machine battling time to be the fastest. Since 1898 many have dreamed of being the fastest on earth.
