

DONATO & DAUGHTER

has even these top writers spellbound:

"I have read Donato & Daughter...with tremendous enjoyment, to a gripper, indeed. Tough, raw and terrific. An extraordinary vision on the father-daughter relationship. I found myself doubting my own work until I finished it."

—MICHAEL INYON, author of The Ten-Minute Chronicle

"I liked the book. The complex family feelings between Donato and his mother, wife and daughter transform this into something more than just another police procedural. The shadow of Donato's dead son hanging over the family provides a tender moment for the contemporary action. Donato and Dina command both respect and affection—and remind us all too clearly of our own complicated family relations."

—LARA H. FREEMAN, author of Deadlock,
Indiana Daily and Killing Order

"Jack Early hits the top with this one. On the one hand, a compassionate and profoundly moving inside glimpse of the embattled human beings who are New York's cops. On the other, an uncompromising thriller that tightens its grip with every astonishing action to high intensity while digging to the unsettling psychological depths beneath. He weaves suspense and dry humor, shock and compassion into an expert tapestry that stretched this reader straight through to the final page."

—MICHAEL INYON, author of They're Not the President's Daughter and Psychopod Love

"An fast-moving, well-written, and, most important, has characters that readers come to care about. Jack Early is a first-rate writer."

—MICHAEL INYON, author of Compromising Positions and Along Paradise
