Dont Forget Easy Exercises For A Better Memory At Any Age:

The Memory Manual Betty Fielding,1999 No gimmicks no long codes or systems to study and memorize just a simple holistic program that will get you or a loved one on track to a better memory and a fuller life Don't Forget Danielle Papp,Danielle C. Lapp,1987 The Fast-track Course on how to Write a Nonfiction Book Proposal Stephen Blake Mettee,2002 The hard cold fact about getting a book published is that without something close to divine intervention an author is going to have to write a sales piece called a book proposal that will attract the attention of an editor or an agent In fact at most publishers this sales piece is going to have to hold up under the scrutiny of a committee made up of a bevy of editors and a pod of sales and marketing people With The Fast Track Course on How to Write a Nonfiction Book Proposal Mettee a seasoned book editor and publisher cuts to the chase and provides simple detailed instruction that allows anyone to write a professional book proposal and hear an editor say Yes According to Mettee the first rule is Do no harm Too many authors don t pay enough attention to the small things like spelling and grammar and manuscript format that are needed to make their book proposals appear professional They may have a great idea for a book and be eminently qualified to write it but they schmuck it up with slovenly disregard for the easy stuff The last rule is Be persistent If you quit after your first rejection slip or after the thirteenth or the thirtieth you ll never get published Many books that are rejected scores of times go on to be best sellers You re not defeated until you give up Handbook of Clinical Behavior Therapy with the Elderly Client Patricia A. Wisocki,2013-11-21 Although we speak of the elderly as if there were one body of people with common characteristics older adults are more heterogeneous than any other population People over the age of 65 are also the fastest growing segment of the population in the United States currently numbering 25 million The majority of older adults reside in their communities a small fraction of them are cared for in institutions Most may expect to experience some kind of physical impairment Approximately a quarter of the population may expect to suffer a mental health impairment While traditional therapies have not been especially effective for older adults behavior therapy has shown exceptional promise as a treatment modality This book presents a comprehensive explication of the relatively new field of behavioral gerontology It was written for the clinician interested in the interaction of medical environmental and psychological variables and their effects on treatment of elderly clients and for the researcher who will be looking to extend knowledge about interventions with this population It will be useful for the graduate student in clinical psychology as well as the experienced clinician who will want to include the elderly in his or her therapeutic population Your Memory Kenneth L. Higbee,2001-02-27 Do you want to stop forgetting appointments birthdays and other important dates Work more efficiently at your job Study less and get better grades Remember the names and faces of people you meet The good news is that it s all possible Your Memory will help to expand your memory abilities beyond what you thought possible Dr Higbee reveals how simple techniques like the Link Loci Peg and Phonetic systems can be incorporated into your everyday life and how you can also use these techniques to learn foreign languages faster than you thought possible remember details you would have otherwise forgotten and overcome general absentmindedness Higbee also includes sections on aging and memory and the latest information on the use of mnemonics Care-Giving in Dementia Gemma M. M. Jones, Bere M. L. Miesen, 2014-06-03 Hb published November 1991

Flannery, 1993-11-23 While much is written about adult learning basic tenets of cognitive theory are often taken for granted The purpose of this volume of New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education is to present an understanding of basic cognitive theory and to apply this understanding to the teaching learning exchange It is the premise of this volume that understanding adults cognitive learning strategies is essential to facilitating successful learning This the 59th issue of New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education For more information on the series please see the Journals and Periodicals page Parents' Guide for Helping Kids Become "A" Students Anne Farrell, Jacqueline Watson, Elaine Dundas, 1990 Quick Takes Elizabeth Penfield, Theodora Hill, 1995 This reader is a collection of thirty three very brief essays and twenty paragraphs that provides readily accessible models of the various rhetorical modes Elderlearning Lois Landmin, Mary Fugate, 1997-05-06 Faced with the possibility of a significantly extended lifespan many Americans can expect to enjoy continued growth and development well past the traditional age of retirement Elderlearning examines the important role of learning in maintaining the health quality of life and longevity of older adults and in providing opportunities for them to take on new roles in society This book includes the results of the first comprehensive survey on the topic of adult learning in men and women over the age of 55 The authors provide key data on the sources topics and extent of the current learning activities of older adults as well as on their preferred learning modes Adult learning is viewed from the perspective of providers of learning services as well as from the viewpoint of individual learners This information is based on extensive interviews with elderlearners and with learning services providers across the country The authors also discuss the policy implications of the elderlearning phenomenon at the federal state and institutional levels They conclude the book with a recommended eight point agenda for improving service to this rapidly growing segment of the population Elderlearning will be a valuable aid to anyone involved in developing or teaching programs designed to meet the needs of older adults as well as to elderlearners themselves
