

"I simply could not put the book down. It is a treasure trove of the tragedies, triumphs and trivialities regarding this thing we call race."

RAYMOND WINBUSH, Director
Race Relations Institute, Fisk University

"And don't call me a racist!"

A treasury of quotes
on the past, present, and future of the color line in America

SELECTED AND ARRANGED by Ella Mazel

"What a great job you have done of bringing together the thoughts of some of our smartest and bravest heroes and heroines. Your making this available to us for use in the schools is an incredibly useful contribution to the education of school children all over the country on the important issue of racism — and to the educators as well."

Dont Call Me A Racist A Treasury Of:

"And Don't Call Me a Racist!" Ella Mazel,1998 In this treasury of over 1 000 quotes you will find in the voices of Langston Hughes and the Delany sisters for example some of the bittersweet humor that has helped sustain blacks in this country through their long oppressive history Melba Patillo Beals almost forty years after she risked death as a teenager to integrate Central High School in Little Rock Arkansas writes in her heart wrenching memoir of that experience The task that remains is to cope with our interdependence to see ourselves reflected in every other human being and to respect and honor our differences That is the message of this book from back cover The Measure of Ya' Blackness , Breaking the Code of Good Intentions Melanie E. L. Bush,2004-06-19 Breaking the Code of Good Intentions places the current day white experience within a political economic and social context by exploring the perceptions of students about identity privilege democracy intergroup relations This book documents how the everyday thinking of ordinary people contributes to the perpetuation of systemic racialized inequality and identifies opportunities to challenge these patterns with particular recommendations for the educational system of the twenty first century Visit our website for sample chapters Special Issue: Celebrating Name's 10th Anniversary Penelope L. Lisi,Philip C. Chinn,2013-12-16 This is Volume 79 Issue 4 2004 of Multicultural Perspectives and this special issue celebrates NAME s 10th Anniversary This includes a collection of works prior to the annual conference on November 15 19 in Orlando Florida were the members will be celebrating the 10th anniversary of the founding of NAME National Association for Multicultural Education This is issue includes information on the founding of the organisation as well as articles on the treatment of citizens by the law and courts on television and film Bilingual Bicultural family narratives to help training and in service teacher the needs of Tibetan children in U S public schools multi racial and multi ethnic students and an article on hope that human kind can work to eradicate hatred and injustice in America Everyday Forms of Whiteness Melanie E. L. Bush,2011-01-16 The second edition of Melanie Bush s acclaimed Everyday Forms of Whiteness looks at the often unseen ways racism impacts our lives The author has interviewed and surveyed hundreds of college students and reveals that even though we talk as though we live in a post racial world after the election of Barack Obama racism is still very much a factor in everyday life The second edition incorporates new data and interviews to show how the everyday thinking of ordinary people contributes to the perpetuation of systemic racialized inequality The book introduces key terms for the study for race and ethnicity reveals the mechanisms that support the racial hierarchy in U S society then outlines ways we can challenge long standing patterns of racial inequality EBOOK: Experiencing Intercultural Communication: An Introduction Judith Martin,Thomas Nakayama,G.P. van Rheede van Oudtshoorn,Paul Schutte,2013-07-16 The new Southern African edition of this popular introductory textbook offers students a practical and accessible framework for developing their intercultural communication skills It provides a global perspective on intercultural communication while allowing students to contextualise their knowledge with relevant examples applications and perspectives Recognising that students in Southern African come from diverse cultural ethnic and linguistic backgrounds it provides discussion of issues and perspectives they can apply to everyday life and to broader contexts Voices of Foreign-born African American Teacher Educators in the United States Festus E. Obiakor,2010 This is a book that exposes silenced and invisible voices in Colleges Schools of Education These voices of African immigrants are seldom heard in serious educational quarters since most foreign born teacher educators try their very best to play by the rules as immigrant minorities However they find themselves between cultural continuity and cultural discontinuity They are pressured to do well by their families in their native countries but these pressures force them to forget home and think about survival strategies in their new found home Very often they do well and at tremendous costs Additionally they are expected to be happy and endure all kinds of mistreatments with a smile because they seem to have fewer survival options On the one hand they are generally treated as Blacks and as Blacks they encounter racist behaviours On the other hand they are treated as invisible primitive and inferior Blacks who have nothing to share and who are supposed to be seen and not heard As a consequence they endure discrimination from both native born African Americans and Whites in America Interestingly when they are confident they are labelled as arrogant troublemaker foreigner chauvinistic and so on When they are quiet they are labelled as incompetent timid naive unprepared and so on The tendency is to forget that they are human beings with aspirations to do well and contribute to their new society that is America The critical question then is how can they do well or contribute to the advancement of their new society if they are not given opportunities to learn teach serve or grow The Racial Conditioning of Our Children Nathan Rutstein,2001 Multicultural Teaching Pamela L. Tiedt,Iris M. Tiedt,2005 What is multicultural education Why is it important in education today The authors of Multicultural Teaching define multicultural education broadly to include all types of diversity as they generate an inclusive curriculum that meets the individual needs of each student Bringing theory and practice together in a student centered curriculum they encourage reflection and discussion through working with Reflective Teaching Portfolios and Cooperative Learning Groups at the end of each chapter The text is based on a strong model focusing on Esteem Empathy and Equity Future teachers are guided to consider the implications of such topics as language diversity the academic achievement gap and racism as they plan lesson designed to develop a community of learners in their classroom Features new to the seventh edition include New chapter on the academic achievement gap Detailed chronology of events leading to the position of multicultural education today At the end of each chapter the section Growing a Professional Library includes carefully selected resources that students will find helpful as future teachers *James A.
