Dogs And Demons The Fall Of Modern Japan:

Dogs and Demons Alex Kerr, 2002 Dogs and Demons Alex Kerr, 2001 An analysis of modern day Japan explores the negative side of the country's economic prosperity from drab architecture to the failure of bureaucratic systems Japan's Foreign Policy, 1945-2009 Kazuhiko Tōgō, 2010 This book stands out amongst the crop of textbooks on Japanese foreign policy that have been available to date because of its authoritative insider voice Here we not only learn what happened in postwar Japan's foreign policy but what the thinking was behind these decisions This is an invaluable element that brings the reader inside the policy making rooms of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs itself In the process Japan's world view and its own self image are concurrently revealed in fascinating and unexpected ways This book destroys stereotypes and vastly improves the quality of our understanding of Japan as an international player We are spoiled by the wisdom and experience of not just one but three major forces in the shaping of Japan's international existence Mr Togo's own formidable experience plus the seminal contributions of his father and grandfather who was instrumental in the closing phases of World War II All of this makes this book indispensable to those who wish to truly understand Japan in her own terms and through her own eyes Rikki Kersten Professor Modern Japanese Political History Australian National University Ambassador Togo's distinctive account of Japanese foreign policy highlights the impact of the vacuum left by the humiliation of defeat in 1945 It bears witness to the intellectual and diplomatic challenge of finding answers to unresolved issues including managing the U S alliance and enhancing cooperation in Asia Updated to cover the results of the 2009 victory of the Democratic Party of Japan this book shows how its change of course fits into a long term narrative In contrast to more impersonal often unsympathetic analysis of Western authors and the self serving writing of many Japanese Togo offers a guide to Japan's quest not a defense of its choices The result is a wide ranging look at foreign policy over more than 60 years seen from the perspective of an insider attentive to a proud nation's search for its bearings Gilbert Rozman Musgrave Professor of Sociology Princeton University

Arthouse Crime Scenes Geoff King, 2024-11-14 Arthouse Crime Scenes is the first book to address the relationship between art cinema and crime contributing to the study of both categories Case studies are provided of works by celebrated filmmakers including Lucretia Martell Kleber Mendonça Filho Bong Joon Ho Nuri Bilge Ceylan Hirokazu Koreeda Jia Zhangke Andrey Zvyagintsev and Lee Chang-dong How is crime represented in art cinema And how can this be understood in the context of global sociopolitical and film industrial trends Arthouse crime scenes draw on variable combinations of elements associated with art cinema and crime genres Crime might be shown or lurk only at the edges It might be left unresolved or unexplained Crime can be petty and small scale or raise big questions associated with the arthouse sector political issues the nature of humanity truth and knowability In this book close textual analysis is combined with focus on social and industrial contexts A recurring theme is the situation of arthouse crime films within differing manifestations of broader processes of late modern neoliberal globalization and cultural hybridity Approaches examined range from the oblique to social realism and

H. Havens,2011 Thomas Havens shows how revolutionary officials in the 1870s seized private properties and converted them into public parks for educating and managing citizens in the new emperor sanctioned state Rebuilding Tokyo and Yokohama after the earthquake and fires of 1923 spurred the spread of urban parklands both in the capital and other cities According to Havens the growth of suburbs the national mobilization of World War II and the post 1945 American occupation helped speed the creation of more urban parks setting the stage for vast increases in public green spaces during Japan's golden age of affluence from the 1960s through the 1980s. Since the 1990s the Japanese public has embraced a heightened ecological consciousness and become deeply involved in the design and management of both city and natural parks realms once monopolized by government bureaucrats. As in other prosperous countries public private partnerships have increasingly become the norm in operating parks for public benefit yet the heavy hand of officialdom is still felt throughout Japan's open lands.

The Security Intersection Greg Mills, 2005 The rising influence of non state actors in the management of international relations reflects both the increasing importance of economic affairs in a rapidly integrating and financially interdependent world and the emergence of so called new issues that have to be factored into any foreign policy: the promotion of human rights and democracy humanitarian concerns drug abuse and trafficking the spread of contagious diseases including HIV AIDS transnational crime the safeguarding of the environment poverty the combating of terrorism the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction illegal weapons trafficking and issues surrounding gender equality. Security Intersection offers an analysis of the policy options we might employ in providing and managing local regional and global security and examines the security issues involved in nation building especially with regard to Iraq but also concerning intervention elsewhere and security issues with regard to terrorism.
