Dogs In Art:

Dog Painting William Secord, 2009 William Secord explores the presentation of the dog from its origins in Greek Roman and later European art to the remarkable paintings of the 18th and 19th centuries up to modern times The Dog Tamsin Pickeral, 2008 Written by a specialist in both art and animal husbandry the book begins with the earliest known representations of the dog including sculptures and paintings of dramatic vitality It goes on to examine the various roles the dog has played in both art and society including its depiction as a symbol of fidelity and romantic love as a prized possession vaunting its owner's power and wealth as a treasured and loyal pet as a mythological being mysteriously travelling between the lands of the living and the dead as a religious image of purity or dissolution and as an indispensable working and hunting companion The book concludes with an examination of the ways in which modern artists have interpreted the image of the dog and reaffirms the profound and unbreakable bond between humans and these complex creatures which ensures that the dog will continue to exert a powerful fascination for artists as they strive to capture the soulful and beguiling character of man's best friend BOOK JACKET Dogs Catherine Johns, 2008 The juxtaposition and explanation of images as diverse as Greek pottery Victorian jewelry Assyrian sculpture and Japanese netsuke illuminates our understanding of the place of dogs in human society around the world This book explores these cultural expressions and reflections of our deep and long standing interest in dogs Dog Painting William Secord, 1992 Dogs in Art, 1994-01-01 The Artful Dog The Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2006-09-21 Loyal dogs have always been by the side of great artists In this celebration they are front and center The Metropolitan Museum of Art which brought us Catnip now presents masterpieces of dog centric art Each is accompanied by prose or poetry from some of the world's great writers humorists and thinkers including Edith Wharton Groucho Marx and William Shakespeare A painting of puppies wrestling playfully in an American quilt is paired with Charles M Schulz's cheerful Happiness is a warm puppy Other treasures reinforce the intimate bond of man and dog from a shaggy Newfoundland acting as a cozy seat for a child in a Renoir painting to a winsome dachshund performing tricks in an early twentieth century photograph Frisky and idiosyncratic this giftable collection is as delightful as its canine subject
