Doing Time An Introduction To The Sociology Of Imprisonment:

Doing Time Roger Matthews, 2016-03-11 The new edition of Doing Time brings this widely recognized book up to date and provides an accessible and informed discussion of current debates around prisons and penal policy Drawing on a range of international material the book provides a critical sociological analysis of developments in imprisonment Doing Time

R. Matthews, 1999-07-09 This book is designed to acquaint students with some of the main issues associated with the emergence and development of the modern prison It draws on a range of sociological theorising in order to analyse the organisation and the functioning of the prison It examines the conditions for the expansion of the prison and explores the possibilities for limiting prison use through the development of alternatives to custody In particular it looks in some detail at the relation between imprisonment and class age gender and race Experiencing Imprisonment Carla Reeves, 2016-01-08

The growing body of work on imprisonment desistance and rehabilitation has mainly focused on policies and treatment programmes and how they are delivered Experiencing Imprisonment reflects recent developments in research that focus on the active role of the offender in the process of justice Bringing together experts from around the world and presenting a range of comparative critical research relating to key themes of the pains of imprisonment stigma power and vulnerability this book explores the various ways in which offenders relate to the justice systems and how these relationships impact the nature and effectiveness of their efforts to reduce offending Experiencing Imprisonment showcases cutting edge international and comparative critical research on how imprisonment is experienced by those people living and working within imprisonment institutions in North America and Northern Central and Eastern Europe as well as Scandinavia The research explores the subjective experience of imprisonment from the perspective of a variety of staff and prisoner groups including juveniles adult female and male prisoners older prisoners sex offenders wrongfully convicted offenders and newly released prisoners Offering a unique view of what it is like to be a prisoner or a prison officer the chapters in this book argue for a prioritisation of understanding the subjective experiences of imprisonment as essential to developing effective and humane systems of punishment This is essential reading for academics and students involved in the study of criminology penology and the sociology of imprisonment It will also be of interest to Criminal Justice practitioners and policymakers around the globe Prisons & Punishment David Scott, Nick Flynn, 2014-04-08

Covering all the key topics across the subject of Penology this book gives you the tools you need to delve deeper and critically examine issues relating to prisons and punishment The second edition explores prisons and punishment within national international and comparative contexts and draws upon contemporary case studies throughout to illustrate key themes and issues includes new sections on actuarial justice proportionality sentencing principles persistent offending rehabilitation and abolitionist approaches to punishment features a The book also includes a useful study skills section which guides you through essay writing and offers hints and tips on how you can get the most out of your lectures and seminars This is the perfect primer for all undergraduate students of Criminology taking modules on Prisons and Punishment or Penology English Society and the Prison Alyson Brown, 2003 This social history analyses a period in which the modern prison faced serious challenges both on practical philosophical grounds These included the use of prison to victimise the poor the disaffected political activists the failure to establish the prison as a satisfactory means of punishment Time and Punishment Nicola Carr, Gwen Robinson, 2022-11-02 This book provides a novel exploration of time and temporality in relation to punishment and criminal sanctioning It goes beyond focussing on the prison to address punishment more broadly with contributions on punishment in the community including after periods of imprisonment and in areas of the criminal justice system which have typically received less attention such as prison transportation between prisons The collection also includes a focus on temporality in criminal justice policy and its potential impacts on speeding up justice as well as the experiential nature of punishment The book includes contributions from scholars in UK and Europe with largely original research and draws on the international literature It hopes to encourage punishment scholars to consider how ideas from the sociology of time can inform their own research

The Politics of Prison Crowding Simone Santorso, 2023-02-14 The Politics of Prison Crowding investigates recent transformations in Italy's penal system to make the key analytical observation that conditions of overcrowding have become the new normal under which the modern prison system continues to operate and deliver punishment Engaging with the politics of crowding thus entails a direct and pertinent engagement with the modern state's politics of criminal justice and social control Worldwide over the last decades a growing number of jurisdictions have prison systems operating above or to the limit of their capacity yet little attention has been paid to these elements in the analysis of prison politics and day to day functions By exploring the crowding issue this book offers an original and interesting insight into the politics and dynamics characterising contemporary prison systems The hypothesis of this book is that the politics of prison crowding have become the template for the daily administration of the prison system which incorporates not just policy and rules but day to day functions and practices regulating life behind bars Through interviews in modern Italian prisons the book brings to light a radical redefinition of a carceral system that harshens the delivery of punishment while justifying this exacerbation of pain by adding new bureaucratic logic to the administration of the penal system within a narrative of compliance to human rights standards By shedding new light on prison politics to open new critical perspectives and research paths The Politics of Prison Crowding offers a fundamental tool to scholars students and all professional policymakers and practitioners dealing with prison policies and the politics of justice Prisons and the Prisoner Shane Bryans, Rachel Jones, 2001 This book is about the people who live and work in the prisons of England and Wales It contains contributions from Prison Service staff an ex prisoner academics and a pressure group and aims to give an idea of the complexity of the world of prisons and prisoners It was written for the public students and new practitioners in the criminal justice field The book is in six parts It begins by looking at the operating context including the purposes of imprisonment the history of the prison system the joint working context the structure and organisation of the Prison Service private sector involvement and ethnic minorities and race relations policy in prisons Part two considers the prison population as a whole and looks at distinct groups of prisoners high security life sentence women and young people their specific needs and management Part three looks at the people who work in prisons Part four examines in detail what happens in prisons Part five looks at external monitoring and accountability The role of the inspectorates Prisons Ombudsman Boards of Visitors and pressure groups are examined The last part of the book offers a view of the future of the Prison Service The Aims Objectives and Principles of the Prison Service and its key performance indicators are given in the annexes

International Criminal Justice Review, 2003

Imprisonment Roger Matthews, 1999 The International library of Criminology Criminal Justice and Penology is an important publishing initiative that brings together the most significant contemporary published journal essays in current criminology criminal justice and penology

The Penal System Michael Cavadino, James Dignan, 2002-03-29 Praise for the First Edition The authors appear to do an excellent job of describing the criminal justice system of England and how the penal system fits into and is affected by it Journal of Contemporary Criminal Justice The Third Edition of this highly successful textbook provides an accessible introduction to the penal system of England and Wales Now fully revised and updated it includes an examination of the direction of penal policy under New Labour

Mediations in Cultural Spaces John Wall, 2008 The essays collected in this volume address the cultural and intellectual production of space Cultures under discussion may be identified at a general level according to notional designations of East and West and range from those of Iran Turkey Western Europe and the United States While the interests orientations and methodologies of the individual contributions are diverse there is a general tendency to forgo official national and regional discourses of social space in favour of discussions exploring the material and intellectual conditions according to which cultural entities come to see themselves as spatially located and or dislocated To this end this volume brings together philosophical historical and critical interpretative treatments of virtual space architecture music sculpture literature religion advertising politics and the cyberspace of the new media Space is variously conceived in terms of the radical imaginary metaphor irruption intensity mimesis ontology the materiality of the earth power and emancipation There is expressed the conviction in these essays that interdisciplinary and eclectic approaches combined with sustained and critical reflection on concepts of space contribute to an understanding of space as radically mobile

Prisonization Wayne Gillespie, 2002 Annotation This study explores the social processes of institutional life such as prisonization and general misconduct from a multilevel perspective According to the author an integrated theory of prisonization is developed that incorporates individual and contextual effects into one parsimonious design using multilevel data from over 1 000 inmates in 30 prisons across Kentucky Tennessee and Ohio Gillespie teaches criminal justice and criminology at East Tennessee State University Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com

Sociology, 2000

A Framework for Breaking Barriers Nicolle Y. Parsons-Pollard, 2006

Beyond the Wire Peter

Shirlow, Kieran McEvoy, 2008-01-20 Analyses the positive role that former prisoners can have in reconstructing communities in the wake of internal conflict Administration ,2006 Prisons, Punishment and the Pursuit of Security D. Drake, 2012-07-25 Drawing on research in men's long term maximum security prisons this book examines three interconnected problems the tendency of the prison to obscure other social problems and conceal its own failings the pursuit of greater levels of human security through repressive and violent means and the persistence of the belief in the problem of evil Choice ,2000 The History of Probation Philip Whitehead, Roger Statham, 2006 This work tells the story of probation from its religious beginnings in 1876 through to the present day It explores probation by alluding to crime imprisonment politics and power increasing central control and criminology
