Latin American Perspectives on Globalization Mario Sáenz, 2002-10-23 From the most prominent thinkers in Latin American philosophy literature politics and social science comes a challenge to conventional theories of globalization The contributors to this volume imagine a discourse in which revolution is defined not as a temporalized march of progress or takeover of state power but as a movement for local control that upholds standards of material conditions for human dignity Essays on identity equality and ethics propose models of transcultural and intercultural relations that replace center periphery or world systems approaches they impel us to focus on building dialogic relationships rather than on accommodating universalized paradigms Ultimately suggesting a reconstruction of the world in terms of the interests of one of the peripheral regions of the world Latin American Perspectives on Globalization argues with cogency and urgency that no one within contemporary globalization debates can afford to ignore the Latin American philosophical tradition

Biblical Ethics and Social Change Stephen Mott, 2011-03-23 This scholarly synthesis of biblical studies and Christian social ethics is designed to provide a biblical argument for intentional institutional change on behalf of social justice Stephen Charles Mott provides a biblical and ethical guide on ways to implement that change The first part of the book providing the biblical theology of intentional social change deals with the central concepts in biblical and theological ethics grace evil love justice and the Reign of God Christian social change must be rooted not only in justice but in the grace received through the death and resurrection of Christ The second part evaluates ethical and theological methods for carrying out that intentional social change It offers a study of evangelism counter community civil disobedience armed revolution and political reform It shows the contribution of each as well as the strong limitations of each used in isolation A recurring theme of the book is the scriptural insistence on the priority of justice as taking upon oneself the cause of the oppressed Justice is understood on bringing back into the community those who are near to falling out of it Political authority has a vital role in social change for justice It is essential that a Christian use all available and legitimate means of meeting basic needs by providing for all what is essential for inclusion in society In this revised edition Mott updates the contemporary illustrations and includes his own further reflections in the last thirty years on this topic Fe y Desplazamiento Christopher M. making energies are policed through the burden of debt In Trading Futures Filipe Maia offers a theological reflection on hope and the future calling for escape routes from the debt economy Drawing on Marxism continental philosophy and Latin American liberation theology Maia provides a critical portrayal of financialization as a death dealing mechanism that colonizes the future in its own image Maia elaborates a Christian eschatology of liberation that offers a subversive mode of imagining future possibilities He shows how the Christian vocabulary of hope can offer a way to critique the hegemony of financialized capitalism propelling us in the direction of a just future that financial discourse cannot manage or control
