Doing Things With Words In The First Christian Century:

Doing Things with Words in the First Christian Century Francis Gerald Downing, 2000-10-01 Although its religious heritage was that of a variegated Judaism the tiny early Christian movement was nevertheless much more complexly and richly linked with the Graeco Roman world in which it came to birth than is usually allowed for In particular ordinary people were capable of a sophisticated use of words that can be detected also in the New Testament writings But the use of words in Graeco Roman times was often very different from what we suppose and this collection of studies attempts to identify some of the anachronisms that still pervade even the best of modern scholarship

Order and (Dis)order in the First Christian Century F. Gerald Downing, 2013-08-01 Articulate first century Mediterranean society Jewish and Christian included expressly favoured harmonious order in society in individuals in communication and in thought Its common basis was the patriarchal family the rule of law rational self control and rational thought Yet there was also resistance to oppressive and unjust order in all spheres and while law could be held educative yet there were substantial first century critiques of law not just Paul's and awareness that judicial procedures could be chaotic and biased Strands of such dissidence appear in Jesus and in Paul with significant relevance for any understanding of the early Christian movement's and contemporary Judaism's in Graeco Roman context but also with important implications for any practical reflections and application
