Snapshots of the Soul Molly Thomasy Blasing, 2021-07-15 Snapshots of the Soul considers how photography has shaped Russian poetry from the early twentieth century to the present day Drawing on theories of the lyric and the elegy the social history of technology and little known archival materials Molly Thomasy Blasing offers close readings of poems by Boris Pasternak Marina Tsvetaeva Joseph Brodsky and Bella Akhmadulina as well as by the late and post Soviet poets Andrei Sen Sen kov Arkadii Dragomoshchenko and Kirill Medvedev to understand their fascination with the visual language representational power and metaphorical possibilities offered by the camera and the photographic image Within the context of long standing anxieties about the threat that visual media pose to literary culture Blasing finds that these poets were attracted to the affinities and tensions that exist between the lyric or elegy and the snapshot Snapshots of the Soul reveals that at the core of each poet's approach to writing the photograph is the urge to demonstrate the superior ability of poetic language to capture and convey human experience Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities

Pasternak's Doctor Zhivago Munir Sendich, Erika Greber, 1990 The Author as Hero Justin Weir, 2002-06-26 An original reading of three famous novels reveals a significant shift in the Russian tradition of psychological prose Justin Weir develops a persuasive analysis of the complex relationship between authorial self reflection and literary tradition in three of the most famous Russian novels of the first half of the twentieth century Mikhail Bulgakov's The Master and Margarita Boris Pasternak's Doctor Zhivago and Vladimir Nabokov's The Gift All three novelists respond to a dual crisis according to Weir the general modernist destabilization of identity and the estrangement from literary tradition that followed the Russian Revolution Using various self reflexive literary devices such as the mise en abyme these authors reincorporate literary tradition into their works and in the process generate a distinctive view of identity Character in these novels is neither the outcome of a continuous process of Bildung nor a direct function of the individual's relation to larger historical events Rather character is defined in the act of writing itself so that every hero must be a sort of author The outcome is a new novelistic art that focuses on the identity of the artist as revealed through his writing With its innovative interpretation of these novels and its compelling historical cultural and theoretical insights The Author as Hero offers a new view of an important moment in the evolution of Russian literature
