Dolls House Translated By Joan Tindale:

Ibsen: A Doll's House Egil Törnqvist, 1995-04-27 This 1995 critical study of Ibsen's A Doll's House addresses fundamental questions of text reception and performance What is the definitive version of A Doll's House original text translation stage presentation radio version adaptation to film or television What occurs when a drama intended for recipients in one language is translated into another or when a play written for the stage is adapted for radio television or film And to what extent do differences between the media and between directorial approaches influence the meaning of the play text Discussions of these issues include an internal analysis of the dramatic text and comparative performance analysis framed by the biographical background to the play and its impact on dramas by Strindberg Shaw and O'Neill and on films by Ingmar Bergman The book concludes with a list of productions and a select bibliography

The New Woman and the Aesthetic Opening Ebba Witt-Brattström, 2004 Is there such a thing as an aesthetic feminism How has the poetics of gender changed since the beginning of the twentieth century Starting with the Modern Breakthrough and the fin de siècle and ending with a discussion of contemporary literary feminism this anthology attempts to redirect the study of the interrelation of aesthetics and gender by giving historical perspective to twentieth century literary works Its approach invites a de-centering of modernist aesthetics and a revision of the canon with its persistent cult of the male genius at the expense of the more dialogical model of women's literature By following the course of women's and men's literature throughout the period gently unlocking the gridlock of gender and aesthetics in high modernism it traces a forgotten dialogue between the sexes The New Woman should be understood as a figure connecting nineteenth century discourses of sexuality and the feminist movement's in a discursive response Her brave redefinition of the gender contract is an indispensable gateway to modern culture The fin de siècle anticipated postmodernist themes such as unstable male/female identities the importance of Eros a queer fantasy of a neuter gender and the narcissistic game of self-invention as a response to the feeling of loss of collective values

A Doll's House Henrik Ibsen, 2002 This translation commissioned by the BBC of one of Ibsen's most important works is considered by Ibsen scholars to be the best

More Theatre Alvin H. Marill, 2003 A continuation of More Theatre Stage to Screen to Television this new volume brings the previous volumes into the new millennium covering the years 1993-2001 All volumes cover productions that have been performed in all of three media stage screen and television Whether the production began on the stage screen or television is not part of the criteria it is only necessary that it eventually was performed in all three media Where new information was added to old entries the entries have been repeated Plenty of new entries have been added as many new shows have qualified for inclusion since the last volume Each entry includes a brief historical overview of the evolution of the stories behind the various productions followed by a list of the production titles along with production dates and credits The stage screen and television fan and researcher alike will not be able to dispense with this fun and useful tool
