Domesticating Drink:

Domesticating Drink Catherine Gilbert Murdock, 1998 Selected by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title The period of prohibition from 1919 to 1933 marks the fault line between the cultures of Victorian and modern America In Domesticating Drink Murdock argues that the debates surrounding alcohol also marked a divide along gender lines For much of early American history men generally did the drinking and women and children were frequently the victims of alcohol associated violence and abuse As a result women stood at the fore of the temperance and prohibition movements and as Murdock explains effectively used the fight against drunkenness as a route toward political empowerment and participation At the same time respectable women drank at home in a pattern of moderation at odds with contemporaneous male alcohol abuse During the 1920s with federal prohibition a reality many women began to assert their hard won sense of freedom by becoming social drinkers in places other than the home Murdock's study of how this development took place broadens our understanding of the social and cultural history of alcohol and the various issues that surround it As alcohol continues to spark debate about behaviors attitudes and gender roles Domesticating Drink provides valuable historical context and important lessons for understanding and responding to the evolving use and abuse of drink

Love on the Rocks

Lori Rotskoff, 2003-10-15 In this fascinating history of alcohol in postwar American culture Lori Rotskoff draws on short stories advertisements medical writings and Hollywood films to investigate how gender norms and ideologies of marriage intersected with scientific and popular ideas about drinking and alcoholism After the repeal of Prohibition in 1933 recreational drinking became increasingly accepted among white suburban middle class men and women But excessive or habitual drinking plagued many families How did people view the problem drinkers in their midst How did husbands and wives learn to cope within an alcoholic marriage And how was drinking linked to broader social concerns during the Great Depression World War II and the Cold War era By the 1950s Rotskoff explains mental health experts movie producers and members of self help groups like Alcoholics Anonymous and Al Anon helped bring about a shift in the public perception of alcoholism from sin to sickness Yet alcoholism was also viewed as a family problem that expressed gender role failure for both women and men On the silver screen in movies such as The Lost Weekend and The Best Years of Our Lives and on the printed page in stories by such writers as John Cheever in hospitals and at Twelve Step meetings chronic drunkenness became one of the most pressing public health issues of the day Shedding new light on the history of gender marriage and family life from the 1920s through the 1960s this innovative book also opens new perspectives on the history of leisure and class affiliation attitudes toward consumerism and addiction and the development of a therapeutic culture Domesticating Drink Catherine Gilbert Murdock,1995 Interpreting the Prohibition Era at Museums and Historic Sites Jason S.
