Don Pio Pico's Historical Narrative Martín Cole, 1973 Don Pio Pico's Historical Narrative. Translated by the Laste Arthur P. Botello. Edited with Introd. by Martin Cole and Henry Welcome Pío Pico, Narciso Botello's Annals of Southern California 1833 - 1847 Brent C. Dickerson, 2014-04-22 This is the world premiere complete publication of Narciso Botellos important Annals of Southern California a work focusing on the years 1833 1847 when California was emerging from its years of isolation and seclusion with dramatic turmoil social change political intrigues and armed conflicts Botello living in that dusty pueblo Los Angeles records a swirl of events and personalities tragic love crime warfare treachery invasion all bound together by the characteristic bravado and intricate web of loyalties of the native Californios This spirited English translation of the original amplified by detailed notes and insightful commentary draws the reader deep into the surprising events of the turbulent final years of Mexican California Seeking El Dorado Lawrence B. de Graaf, Kevin Mulroy, Quintard Taylor, 2014-07-01 From the 18th century African Americans like many others have migrated to California to seek fortunes or often the more modest goals of being able to find work own a home and raise a family relatively free of discrimination Not only their search but also its outcome is covered in Seeking El Dorado Whether they settled in major cities or smaller towns African Americans created institutions and organizations churches social clubs literary societies fraternal orders civil rights organizations that embodied the legacy of their past and the values they shared Blacks came in search of the same jobs as other Americans but the search often proved frustrating Throughout the 19th and 20th centuries African American leadership in the state consistently focused on achieving racial justice The essays in this book speak of triumph and hardship success discrimination and disappointment Seeking El Dorado is a major contribution to black history and the history of the American West and will be of interest to both scholars and general readers Pío Pico Miscellany Martin Cole, 1978 A Coalition of Lineages Duane Champagne, Carole Goldberg, 2021-05-25 The Fernande o Tataviam Band of California Mission Indians have lived in Southern California in the area now known as Los Angeles and Ventura Counties from time immemorial Throughout history these Indigenous Californians faced major challenges as colonizers moved in to harvest the resources of the California lands Through meticulous archival research authors Duane Champagne and Carole Goldberg trace the history of the Fernande o Tataviam Band from the time before the Spanish arrived in the Americas to the present day The history of Southern California s Indigenous communities is mapped through the story of family and their descendants or lineages The authors explain how politically and culturally independent lineages merged and strengthened via marriage creating complex and enduring coalitions among Indigenous communities The Indigenous people of Southern California faced waves of colonizers the Spanish then the Mexicans followed by Americans and their coalitions allowed them to endure to today Champagne and Goldberg are leading experts in Native sovereignty policies and histories They worked in collaboration with members of the Fernande o Tataviam Band of Mission Indians to illustrate how the community formed and persisted A Coalition of Lineages is not only the story of a Native Southern California community it is also a model for multicultural tribal development for recognized and nonrecognized Indian nations in the United States and elsewhere Making Music in Los Angeles Catherine Parsons Smith,2007-10-16 In this fascinating social history of music in Los Angeles from the 1880s to 1940 Catherine Parsons Smith ventures into an often neglected period to discover that during America s Progressive Era Los Angeles was a center for making music long before it became a major metropolis She describes the thriving music scene over some sixty years including opera concert giving and promotion and the struggles of individuals who pursued music as an ideal a career a trade a business or all those things at once Smith demonstrates that music making was closely tied to broader Progressive Era issues including political and economic developments the new roles played by women and issues of race ethnicity and class Proceedings of the Conference of Orange County History, 1988 Robert A. Slayton,Leland L. Estes,1989 History of California. 1884-90 Hubert Howe Bancroft,1885 The Works of Hubert Howe Bancroft: History of California Hubert Howe Bancroft,1886 The Works of Hubert Howe Bancroft: History of California. 1884-90 Hubert Howe Bancroft,1886 California History Nugget ,1924 History of the Pacific States of North America Hubert Howe Bancroft,1888 The Works of Hubert Howe Bancroft. 18-24 : History of California Hubert Howe Bancroft,1886 History of the Pacific States of North America: California pastoral Hubert Howe Bancroft,1888 Mexican American Labor, 1790-1990 Juan Gómez-Quiñones,1994 Historians of labour in the United States have given scant attention to Mexican American workers and their trade union activity This panoramic history summarises the origins of this work force and the social and economic changes the workers experienced as industrialisation and capitalism transformed employment in the nineteenth century He focuses on the Southwest and California in particular in recounting worker efforts to organise trade unions over the past one hundred years As the author traces the historic evolution of struggles to gain economic equity and ethnic and gender equality he introduces the individual experiences of many courageous workers Ranchos de Los Santos Security Trust & Savings Bank, Burbank Branch. Publicity Dept,1927 The Story of San Diego Walter Gifford Smith,1892 Mexican-American Music in Nineteenth-century Southern California John Koegel,1994 Index to Book Reviews in Historical Periodicals John W.
