Dont Go Europe:

The Politics of Mobile Citizenship in Europe Nora Siklodi, 2020-07-31 The Politics of Mobile Citizenship in Europe explores contemporary models of national and European Union EU citizenship in the context of intra EU mobility Scholars have often addressed these models from separate disciplinary standpoints National citizenship has been studied through the prism of citizenship studies and EU citizenship from an EU studies viewpoint To contribute to their ongoing discussion and offer a politically embedded perspective Siklodi applies the citizenship studies lens to the analysis of EU wide survey data and original focus group evidence of young and highly educated EU mobiles and stayers in Sweden and Britain Specifically she investigates political community building processes including processes of differentiation and exclusion and the dimensions of citizenship identity rights and participation at the national and EU levels Siklodi proposes a redefinition of the active passive citizen dichotomy in terms of mobiles stayers to provide a more accurate description of contemporary citizen attitudes and behaviours across the European community

Crossing New Europe Ewa Mazierska, Laura Rascaroli, 2006 Although a long established and influential genre this is the first comprehensive study of the European road cinema Crossing New Europe investigates this tradition its relationship with the American road movie and its aesthetic forms This movement examines such crucial issues as individual and national identity crises and phenomena such as displacement diaspora exile migration nomadism and tourism in postmodern post Berlin Wall Europe Drawing on the work of Said Hall Shields Urry Bauman Deleuze and Guattari and other critical theorists Crossing New Europe adopts a broad interpretation of Europe and discusses directors and films who have long been associated with the road movie such as Wim Wenders Alice in the Cities Lisbon Story and Aki Kaurismäki Leningrad Cowboys Go America and other more recent contributions such as Run Lola Run Dear Diary and The Last Resort
