OECD Regional Development Studies Implications of Remote Working Adoption on Place Based Policies A

Focus on G7 Countries OECD,2021-06-22 COVID 19 has accelerated the digitalisation of working and social interactions Global lockdowns to contain the pandemic have forced firms and workers to perform a wide range of daily functions through virtual means This has led to greater uptake and acceptance of remote working which will likely remain in the post pandemic scenario Country Guide and Nor'west Farmer ,1913 The Color of COVID-19 Sharon A. Navarro,Samantha L.

Hernandez,2022-06-16 The COVID 19 pandemic has disproportionately affected communities of color while highlighting the prevalence of structural racism in the United States This crucial collection of essays written by leading scholars from the fields of communications political science health philosophy and geography explores the manifold ways in which the COVID 19 pandemic has impacted upon Black Latinx and Indigenous communities and the way we see race relations in the United States The COVID 19 pandemic has exposed the significance of U S health inequalities which the World Health Organization defines as avoidable and unfair It has also highlighted structural racism specifically institutions practices values customs and policies that differentially allocate resources and opportunities so as to increase inequity among racial groups Navarro and Hernandez therefore argue that the COVID 19 pandemic has unleashed a race war in America that has further marginalized communities of color by limiting access to resources by different racial and ethnic minorities particularly women within these communities Moreover the systemic policies of the past that upheld or failed to address the unequal social conditions affecting Blacks Latinxs and other minorities have now been magnified with COVID 19 The volume concludes by offering recommendations to prevent future humanitarian crises from exacerbating racial divisions and having a disproportionate impact upon ethnic minorities This timely volume will be of great interest to those interested in the study of race and the social impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic in the United States RETHINK Design Guide Nicola Gillen,Pippa Nissen,Julia Park,Adam Scott,Sumita Singha,Helen Taylor,Ian Taylor,Sarah Featherstone,2021-02-18 The world has changed How will society emerge post pandemic Will we take the opportunity to reset the status quo And if so what possibilities are there for architects to take the initiative in designing this new world This innovative design guide draws together expert guidance on designing in the immediate aftermath of the pandemic for key architectural sectors housing workplace civic and cultural hospitality education infrastructure and civic placemaking It provides design inspiration to architects on how they can respond to the challenges and opportunities of a post pandemic environment and how architects ensure they are at the forefront of the best design in this new world Looking at each sector in turn it covers the challenges specific to each and how delivering these designs might differ from the pre pandemic world As well as post pandemic design the vital issue of climate change will be threaded through each sector with many cross overs between designing for the climate emergency and designing for a world after a pandemic Both seek to make the world a safer happier and more resilient place Written by set of contributing design experts this book is for all architects whether sole practitioners or working in a larger practice As well as inspirational design guidance it also provides client perspectives crucial for understanding how clients are planning for the future too
