Ghosts in the Dating App Machine Gregory Narr, 2025-10-28 Ghosts in the Dating App Machine offers a critical examination of the shift to dating apps to illustrate key features of a broader shift to a mode of data colonialism based on datafication and AI orchestration This book analyses 48 in depth and mediated interviews forums blogs and official statements made by dating apps It situates this transition within the broader culture of data colonialism through close readings of science fiction suggesting the world has become like Us where doppelgangers constituted from reprehensible proclivities have emerged as digital profiles reflected back to users through the horrific play of social media mirrors to govern their encounters against their wishes These mirrors allow media companies to conduct surreptitious experiments on users dispossessed desires devise digital doppelgangers from those they disavow and compel behaviors that are lucrative precisely because they are misaligned with humane values Yet this horrific play of mirrors is not inevitable By attending to the ghosts of colonialism unleashed by media companies through the approach developed in this book it is still possible to galvanize the collective will to combat data colonialism and strive to create a world where love disentangled from colonial modes of desire is possible This study will interest scholars attempting to understand the rapidly evolving ecology of dating apps within the areas of digital media media sociology cultural studies anthropology and media and communication studies

These Strange New Minds Christopher Summerfield,2025-03-11 An insider look at the Large Language Models LLMs that are revolutionizing our relationship to technology exploring their surprising history what they can and should do for us today and where they will go in the future from an AI pioneer and neuroscientist In this accessible up to date and authoritative examination of the world s most radical technology neuroscientist and AI researcher Christopher Summerfield explores what it really takes to build a brain from scratch We have entered a world in which disarmingly human like chatbots such as ChatGPT Claude and Bard appear to be able to talk and reason like us and are beginning to transform everything we do But can AI think know and understand What are its values Whose biases is it perpetuating Can it lie and if so could we tell Does their arrival threaten our very existence These Strange New Minds charts the evolution of intelligent talking machines and provides us with the tools to understand how they work and how we can use them Ultimately armed with an understanding of AI s mysterious inner workings we can begin to grapple with the existential question of our age have we written ourselves out of history or is a technological utopia ahead
