

The image is a vertical split-screen comparison. The left half shows a close-up of a sleek, white and grey train moving through a dark, industrial-looking tunnel with warm orange and yellow lighting. The right half shows the same train from a wider perspective, traveling through a complex, multi-level city street at night. The city features various structures, including a prominent building with two large red circular lights. The overall aesthetic is futuristic and cinematic. A thin white vertical line separates the two halves, and a small white circle is positioned at the bottom of this line, just above the text box.
