Generative AI in Education Ilaria Torre, Diego Zapata-Rivera, Chien-Sing Lee, Antonio Sarasa-Cabezuelo, Ioana Ghergulescu, Paul Libbrecht, 2024-12-24 In the field of education there is a growing interest in the use of Generative Artificial Intelligence to reshape the educational landscape Led by our esteemed Associate Editors Dr Zapata Rivera Prof Torre and Review Editors Profs Lee Sarasa Cabezuelo Libbrecht Dr Ghergulescu this editorial initiative aims to investigate the transformative potential of Generative AI in various aspects of education By leveraging machine learning models these intelligent systems extract useful insights from vast amounts of data making them capable of delivering highly individualized content They can analyze a learner s proficiency level learning style and pace and then tailor the study material accordingly Whether a learner prefers visual aids textual content or interactive modules Generative AI can adapt its content generation strategies to meet distinct preferences and learners needs This ensures an elevated engagement level and enhanced comprehension highlighting its potential to transform traditional teaching methodologies

AI in Social Studies Education Christopher H. Clark, Cathryn van Kessel, 2025 The introduction of widely available generative AI tools has caused a frenzy of both positive and negative reactions Between utopian visions and apocalyptic predictions of AI s impact on education there is a need to thoughtfully consider what education in the age of AI can and should look like This volume focuses on the implications of AI technology for teachers in K 12 and university settings providing a careful look at its affordances and drawbacks for social studies curriculum and teaching Scholars specializing in the field of social studies education provide information and practical ideas for teaching with current technology alongside frameworks for thinking about future iterations of AI This book fills a critical need especially among educators to consider the current and potential future impacts of AI while avoiding the traps of alarmism or techno utopianism Whether skeptical or enthusiastic about AI every social studies educator will find something useful to their practice in this book

Book Features First ever compilation of AI considerations and strategies in the context of social studies education Nontechnical explanations of what AI can do and not do in practical educational contexts to enable educators to approach its use with careful judgment Advice for educators to help them assess future iterations of AI technology Critical considerations of AI across multiple contexts e.g. ethics equity multilingual learners cybersecurity Work from leaders in technology and social studies education across Canada and the United States Contributors Erin C Adams Curby Alexander Elizabeth Barrow Daphanie Bibbs Ariel Cornett Matthew Cress Kevin Donley Leslie Smith Duss Lindsay Gibson Thomas C Hammond Marie Heath Dawnavyn James Patrick Kane Dan Krutka Liran Ma Tim Monreal Rachel Moylan Julie Oltman Zilong Pan Michelle Reidel Elizabeth C Reynolds Tina C Soliday Vi Trinh Bretton A Varga

Handbook of Higher Education in Japan Paul Snowden, 2025-10-01 Just as higher education HE in Europe had its beginnings in religious training for the priesthood HE in feudal Japan too provided instruction for a religious life But while the evolution to secular instruction was gradual in Europe in Japan it came with a big bang the opening of the country and consequent Westernization and all that that involved in the mid 19th century This first volume in the new Japan Documents Handbook series tells the story in 25 chapters of how Japan's HE system has become what it is now ending with a very tentative glimpse into the rest of the 21st century A variety of themes are covered by scholars chapters that concentrate on governance look at the distinction between national public and private institutions others consider important topics such as internationalization student recruitment and faculty mobility More innovative topics include Women of Color Leading in Japanese Higher Education All provide copious references to other authorities but rather than just toe the conventional line they include opinions and proposals that may be contentious or even revolutionary The editor provides an overview of the subject and its treatment in an Introduction

Artificial Intelligence for Education Mario Allegra, Manuel Gentile, Giuseppe Città, Frank Dignum, Iza Marfisi-Schottman, 2023-11-27 What learning teaching and education will be in the next future is an open question Nevertheless believing that an increasing prevalence of AI may not influence the education field seems objectively unlikely In recent years the new renaissance of AI has stimulated discussion on how advances in AI can influence the educational sector and the future educational policies and the impact of AI on Technology Enhanced Learning TEL On the other side the attention of the education sector in artificial intelligence is complemented by the consideration that since the early days of AI researchers have shown for the education sector which has often seen education as one of the preferred application areas The interaction between the AI and TEL research fields led to the investigation of how the advance in AI could support the development of flexible inclusive personalized engaging and effective learning tools Besides research in this area could be a powerful tool to open the learning black box by providing a deeper understanding of how learning occurs The proposed Research Topic aims to gather contributions that provide a comprehensive picture of how AI is changing educational practices and how the key stakeholders in the educational community i.e. students teachers faculty and families perceive this ongoing change Relevant topics include but are not limited to AI applications in real world educational settings Intelligent Tutoring Systems Adaptive learning environments Learning design and AI Students profiling definition of the student model and ethical implications Intelligent techniques for objective and integrated students
