Malhotra, 2015-05-05 This volume includes the full proceedings from the 1985 Academy of Marketing Science AMS Annual Conference held in Miami Beach Florida. It provides a variety of quality research in the fields of marketing theory and practice in areas such as consumer behaviour, marketing management, marketing education, and international marketing among others. Founded in 1971, the Academy of Marketing Science is an international organization dedicated to promoting timely explorations of phenomena related to the science of marketing in theory, research, and practice. Among its services to members and the community at large, the Academy offers conferences, congresses, and symposia that attract delegates from around the world. Presentations from these events are published in this Proceedings series, which offers a comprehensive archive of volumes reflecting the evolution of the field. Volumes deliver cutting edge research and insights complementing the Academy's flagship journals, the Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science (JAMS) and AMS Review. Volumes are edited by leading scholars and practitioners across a wide range of subject areas in marketing science. Business Education Forum, 1978 Critical Incidents in Management John M. McCusker, 2024-04-02 Since the beginning of the 21st century, there has been an explosion in startup organizations. Together, these organizations have been valued at over 3 trillion. In 2019 alone, nearly 300 billion of venture capital was invested globally. Global Startup Ecosystem Report 2020. Simultaneously, an explosion in high volume and high velocity of big data is rapidly changing how organizations function. Gone are the days when organizations can make decisions solely on intuition, logic, or experience. Some have gone as far as to say that data is the most valuable currency and resource available to businesses, and startups are no exception. However, startups do differ from their larger counterparts and corporations in three distinct ways 1 they tend to have fewer resources time and specialized training to devote to data analytics 2 they are part of a unique entrepreneurial ecosystem with unique needs 3 scholarship and academic research on human capital data analytics in startups is lacking Existing entrepreneurship research is primarily conducted in business schools There needs to be more integration of industrial organizational psychology and entrepreneurship This book was designed to do just that to demonstrate how organizational psychology with a focus on human capital data and analytics can advance the science and practice of entrepreneurship This book is purposefully designed to address the unique idiosyncrasies of the science research and practice of startups and the entrepreneurial ecosystem Each chapter takes a science practice perspective highlighting a specific human capital management topic e g learning and development team effectiveness human capital due diligence and discusses how leveraging data can help enhance decision making The volume is grounded in sound theory and practice of organizational psychology entrepreneurship and management It is divided into three parts 1 human capital assessment and development for startups 2 understanding startup situations environments and support systems and 3 measuring startup level performance
