Parme Gilbert Durand, 1961 Novel Configurations Allan H. Pasco, 1994 During a period when the field of literary studies turned away from texts to theory Novel Configurations A Study of French Fiction has become an underground classic Although it proposes a theory that theory is inductive and solidly based in real works of fiction While looking again at significant masterpieces that range from the early nineteenth to the late twentieth centuries from the creations of traditional french writers to that of an Argentine who spent most of his productive life in France Allan H Pasco has perceptively indicted new but valid close readings that have revolutionized our view of these works He suggests that La Chartreuse de Parme is rigorously organized that Balzac was a narrational minimalist that Huysmans developed novelistic strategies that would be played out in the Nouvea Roman that Proust intended good readers to come away from A la recherche du temps perdu with very different but complementary interpretations that Robbe Grillet s La Jalousie turns on a plot that seems strange only because it takes place in the mind of the narrator From these philologically sophisticated interpretations Pasco lucidly elegantly and wittily points to categories that include all fiction Concentrating on patterns and description on the one hand and external and internal organization on the other Novel configurations proposes a new classification that can be easily taught to novices though it will help even professional readers understand the most complex fictional innovations

L'imaginaire chez Stendhal François Landry, 1982 The Charterhouse of Parma Stendhal, 1999-09-09 The Charterhouse of Parma 1839 is a compelling novel of passion and daring of prisons and heroic escape of political chicanery and sublime personal courage Set at the beginning of the nineteenth century amidst the golden landscapes of northern Italy it traces the joyous but ill starred amorous exploits of a handsome young aristocrat called Fabrice del Dongo and of his incomparable aunt Gina her suitor Prime Minister Mosca and Cl lia a heroine of ethereal beauty and earthly passion These characters are rendered unforgettable by Stendhal s remarkable gift for psychological insight Never before have the hearts of princes ministers courtiers and women been depicted like this wrote Honor de Balzac Stendhal s tableau has the dimensions of a fresco but the precision of the Dutch masters The great achievement of The Charterhouse of Parma is to conjure up the excitement and romance of youth while never losing sight of the harsh realities which beset the pursuit of happiness nor the humour and patient irony with which these must be viewed This new translation captures Stendhal s narrative verve while the Introduction explores the novel s reception and the reasons for its enduring popularity and power

Stendhal Roger Pearson, 2014-09-11 Both critic and writer Stendhal has now become established as one of realism s founding fathers Dr Pearson s book maps out for the first time the critical reception of Stendhal s two most widely read novels The Red and the Black and The Charterhouse of Parma since their publication in 1830 and 1839 respectively In part one he provides generous samples of the most important nineteenth century responses to the novels almost all of them translated into English for the first time Part two presents a full range of the most authoritative and influential readings since 1945 which illustrate a wide variety of critical approaches

The Renaissance in the Nineteenth Century Victoria University (Toronto, Ont.). Centre for Reformation and Renaissance Studies, 2003 The nineteenth century witnessed rapid economic and social developments profound political and intellectual upheaval and startling innovations in art and literature As Europeans peered into an uncertain future they drew upon the Renaissance for meaning precedents and identity Many claimed to find inspiration or models in the Renaissance but as we move across the continent s borders and through the century s decades we find that the Renaissance was many different things to many different people This collection brings together the work of sixteen authors who examine the many Renaissances conceived by European novelists and poets artists and composers architects and city planners political theorists and politicians businessmen and advertisers The essays fall into three groups Aesthetic Recoveries of Strategic Past The Renaissance in Nineteenth Century Culture Wars and Material Culture and Manufactured Memories
