activists to groundbreaking scientists and quietly defiant labourers The diverse women in this engaging new collection include pioneer and midwife Tuwa hwiye Tusium Gollelim Mary Ann Gyves world renowned algae botanist Josephine Tilden undiscovered aviatrix Lilian Bland Vancouver Island s first African Canadian teacher Emma Stark and entrepreneur and bounty hunter Ada Annie Rae Arthur better known as Cougar Annie On Their Own Terms will delight and empower anyone looking for true stories of nineteenth and twentieth century women who confronted uncertainty challenged gender norms and excelled in their respective vocations Whether you are an entrepreneur an educator a rebellious spirit or an armchair adventurer these incredible women who thrived on Vancouver Island will captivate you Beyond the City Limits R.W. Sandwell,2011-11-01

Historians have not usually identified British Columbia as a rural province B C historiography has been dominated by mining logging and fishing and theorized within the context of large scale laissez faire capitalism and economic individualism Silences in the historical record have exacerbated this situation and lent tacit support to the dominance of resource based capitalism as the shaping force in B C history The essays in Beyond the City Limits all published here for the first time decisively break this silence and challenge traditional readings of B C history In this wide ranging collection R W Sandwell draws together a distinguished group of contributors who bring expertise methodologies and theoretical perspectives taken from social and political history environmental studies cultural geography and anthropology They discuss such diverse topics as Aboriginal White settler relations on Vancouver Island pimping and violence in northern BC and the triumph of the coddling moth over Okanagan orchardists to show that a narrow emphasis on resource extraction capitalist labour relations and urban society is simply not broad enough to adequately describe those who populated the province s history By challenging the dominant urban based and overwhelmingly capitalist interpretation of the province s history the provocative essays in Beyond the City Limits expand our understanding of what rural was and what it meant in the history of British Columbia This Artful Sport Paul Schullery,Steve Raymond,2024-09-03

Two of America s foremost fly fishing authors join forces in this unique book offering guidance to others who aspire to write about fly fishing Paul Schullery and Steve Raymond both members of the Fly Fishing Hall of Fame have separately written many fly fishing books both fiction and nonfiction and edited three fly fishing magazines Here they offer the benefit of their many years of experience to help others who aspire to write about the sport including everything you need to know about developing your personal writing style how to write and sell fly fishing magazine articles or books how to find publishers how to promote and sell your work or how to self publish Canadian Literature in English W. J. Keith,2006 W J Keith has chosen to ignore utterly both the popular at the one extreme Robert Service Lucy Maud Montgomery as well as the avant garde at the other bpnichol Anne Carson in favour of those authors whose style lends itself to the simple pleasure of reading and to that end Keith dedicates his history to all those including those of the general reading public whose endangered status is much lamented who recognize and celebrate the dance of words If More Walls Could Talk Valerie Green,2004 Valerie Green and Lynn Gordon Findlay have put their ears to the walls of Vancouver Island's historic homes and transcribed the whispered secrets of bygone days when folk of every description left their echoes in the buildings where they lived worked played and died If the walls of a venerable mansion could speak what stories would it tell How about that rustic shack farther down the road In her first book If These Walls Could Talk Valerie Green explored 50 heritage homes in the Greater Victoria area In this second volume she ranges further afield covering Greater Victoria and Southern Vancouver Island Duncan and the Cowichan Valley Nanaimo Port Alberni Parksville Qualicum Beach Courtney and District and Campbell River and the North Island including homes in Telegraph Cove and Port McNeill Each home tells of a way of life long past of people who dwelt within its walls when and how it was built or how it is historically significant Once again Valerie's text is complemented by architectural artist Lynn Gordon Findlay's exquisite drawings
