world By stressing the urgency for Christian involvement unearthing the dangers and advising readers on how to use this media with different audiences this book equips believers to advance demonstrate and utilize the Christian worldview in this exciting realm      Wasting Time with God Klaus Issler,2001-06-01 asting Time with God Klaus Issler considers seven character traits and companion disciplines to develop in light of God s friendship with us in order to help us make more room in our lives for him      Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004      Advancing Trinitarian Theology Zondervan,2014-11-04 An Exploration of Different Issues in the Doctrine of the Trinity Throughout the last century theologians gave great attention to the doctrine of the Trinity and they largely succeeded in restoring it to a central place in Christian thought But as they highlighted the novelty of the revolutionary new trinitarianism a number of generalizations crept into the discussion that requires a careful reevaluation of the classical tradition Trinitarian Theology the subject of the second annual Los Angeles Theology Conference sought to make constructive progress in the doctrine of the Trinity by aligning the trinitarian revival with the ongoing task of retrieving the classical doctrine of the Trinity The nine diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Ways to clarify the doctrine of the Trinity without sacrificing its essential mystery The ways in which trinitarian theology applies practically to the Christian life and mission Highlighting the counter revolutionary trends in the most recent trinitarian thought Discourse on the role Karl Barth played in advancing trinitarian thought Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future      The Third Person of the Trinity Zondervan,2020-12-01 A Fresh Look at the Holy Spirit Recent decades have recognized pneumatology the theology of the Holy Spirit as a critical component in Christian thought worthy of increased attention While scholarly discussion about the Spirit is both creative and lively it does sometimes occur in outlying areas of doctrine and practice rather than within its context of the doctrine of God The Third Person of the Trinity represents the proceedings of the 2020 Los Angeles Theology Conference which examined pneumatology as a core component of the doctrine of the Trinity offering constructive proposals for understanding the doctrine of the Holy Spirit with theological and historical depth ecumenical scope and analytic clarity The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Understanding the Holy Spirit s presence in creation The mystery of the Trinity and the procession of the Spirit An exploration of a Black American pneumatology of freedom Exploring pneumatology alongside sorrow and suffering Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future      The Christian Doctrine of Humanity Zondervan,2018-11-06 Engaging with the Complex Subject of Theological Anthropology Theological anthropology is a complicated doctrinal subject that needs to be elaborated with careful attention to its relation to other major doctrines

Among other things it must confess the glory and misery of humanity from creation in the image of God to the fall into a state of sin. It must reckon with a holism that spans distinctions between body, soul, and spirit and a unity that encompasses male and female as well as racial and cultural difference. The Christian Doctrine of Humanity represents the proceedings of the sixth annual Los Angeles Theology Conference which sought constructively and comprehensively to engage the task of theological anthropology. The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Human thought and the image of God, The relevance of biblical eschatology for philosophical anthropology, Living and flourishing in the Spirit, Vocation and the oddness of human nature. Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field, theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future.

Locating Atonement Zondervan, 2015-11-10. A Close Look at Atonement's Place in Contemporary Systematic Theology. In light of renewed interest in the doctrine of atonement during which a range of atonement models have gained momentum among different traditions, it's important to map these models to the broader context of theological thought on this aspect of Christ's work and to show how no single approach has the complete picture. The proceedings of the third annual Los Angeles Theology Conference seek to identify the place of the doctrine of atonement in systematic theology. Locating Atonement stays away from discussion of theories of atonement, typologies of those theories, and contests among various theories. Instead, its focus is on the question: What else is there to do in atonement theology besides rehashing types and theories? The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Atonement and the concept of punishment, Atonement and ascension, Atonement and human suffering, Atonement and covenant. Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field, theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future.

The Task of Dogmatics Zondervan, 2017-11-21. Defining the Nature, Process, and Mission of Dogmatic Discourse. Theologians often discuss method in a remote and preliminary way that suggests they are not yet speaking theologically when speaking methodologically. But it is also possible to reflect on the work of Christian dogmatics in a way that is self-consciously nourished by biblical reasoning, resourced by tradition, joined up with ecclesial practice, and alert to spiritual dynamics. Bringing together theologians who are actively engaged in the writing and editing of extended dogmatics projects, The Task of Dogmatics represents the proceedings of the 2017 Los Angeles Theology Conference and seeks to provide constructive accounts of the nature of the dogmatic task. The eleven diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Identifying theology's pattern and norm, The validity and relativity of doctrinal statements, The Apostle Paul and the task of dogmatics, The retrieval of patristic and medieval theology. Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field, theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future.

future     The Voice of God in the Text of Scripture Zondervan,2016-11-01 A Development of the Doctrine of Scripture and Its Interpretation In the case of engaging with Scripture in a way that allows it to speak to us we have a theological mandate to develop a doctrine of Scripture that recognizes both the written text and its divine authorship The proceedings of the fourth annual Los Angeles Theology Conference focuses on the theological and doctrinal dimensions to the biblical texts drawing on scholars of biblical studies and systematic theology in order to do so The question that frames these discussions is How does the voice of God come to us in the text of Scripture The ten diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Authorial intent The reception and formation of the Bible as Christian Scripture The relationship between Scripture and human identity The hermeneutics of metaphor and theological method Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future     Divine

Action and Providence Zondervan,2019-11-26 Thinking Clearly and Deeply about the Theology of God s Intervention in the World The claim that God acts in the world is surely a basic theological claim but it s one that has been understood in a wide variety of ways in the Christian theological tradition In some accounts God appears as the largest first and most powerful agent In others God is portrayed as the transcendent ground of all finite agency while never acting on the same plane as other agents Divine Action and Providence represents the proceedings of the seventh annual Los Angeles Theology Conference which invited theologians across Christian traditions to contribute their constructive accounts and proposals to the theology of God s relation to and intervention in the world The eleven diverse essays in this collection include discussions on The particularity and detail of divine action Recovering the identity of the God of providence The theological meaning of the course of history The nature of omnipotence Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future     Confessing the Church

Zondervan,2024-04-16 The 2023 Los Angeles Theology Conference examines ecclesiology that is the doctrine about the Church Conference contributions offer constructive proposals for understanding and confessing the doctrine of the Church with historical depth ecumenical scope and analytic clarity This book contains the proceedings of the conference     Three Dissertations, etc. Dissertations relating to the Christian Doctrine of the Trinity ...
