Deciphering The Senses The Expanding World Of Human Perception:

Deciphering the Senses Robert Rivlin, Karen Gravelle, 1984 Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993-10 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes's writings on photography and the film theory of Christian Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay's reputation as one of today's premier cultural and intellectual historians

Deciphering the Senses Robert Rivlin, Karen Gravelle, 1985-04-01 Secrets of Power, Volume II Ingo Swann, 2018-09-02 Most books about power only deal with the societal formula of the few having power over the enormously larger powerless masses and which is mistaken as the so called natural order of power But it is not well understood that this formula also requires social conditioning measures aimed at perpetuating the continuing depowerment of the powerless so that the powerful CAN have power over them This in turn requires the societal suppression and secretizing of all knowledge about the superlative human powers known to exist in individuals of the human species but which are socially forced into latency in most It is broadly understood that power and secrecy go together but the scope of the web of secrets surrounding the larger nature of human power's is surprising As discussed in this Volume I of SECRETS OF POWER empowerment is difficult if the larger panorama of societal power and depowerment are not more fully understood The Senses Fiona Macpherson, 2011-05-09 This volume is the first on the philosophy of the non visual senses It includes in equal measure both classic articles from Aristotle to Paul Grice which are unavailable or otherwise difficult to access as well as new essays by well known philosophers It also includes an introduction by Macpherson which draws together the centuries of philosophical thought on the senses and points to likely new directions Making Sense of Shakespeare Charles H. Frey, 1999 He argues that Lear's howl for example targets and rewards physical hearing physical speaking and their accompanying emotions as somatically connected to current or remembered sensations in mouth throat and lungs BOOK JACKET
