Decision Cases for Advanced Social Work Practice Terry A. Wolfer, Lori D Franklin, Karen A Gray, 2013-11-19 These fifteen cases take place in child welfare mental health hospital hospice domestic violence refugee resettlement veterans administration and school settings and reflect individual family group and supervised social work practice They confront common ethical and treatment issues and raise issues regarding practice interventions programs policies and laws Cases represent open ended situations encouraging students to apply knowledge from across the social work curriculum to develop problem solving and critical thinking skills An instructor s manual with teaching notes is available by emailing coursematerials@columbiauniversitypress.com Decision Cases for Generalist Social Work Practice T. Laine Scales, Terry A. Wolfer, 2006 This collection of cases provides social work students with opportunities to practice thinking like social work professionals Students learn to articulate and defend their positions to listen more effectively and to develop skills in collaborative problem solving Decision Cases for Advanced Social Work Practice Terry A. Wolfer, Lori D Franklin, Karen A Gray, 2013-11-19 These fifteen cases take place in child welfare mental health hospital hospice domestic violence refugee resettlement veterans administration and school settings and reflect individual family group and supervised social work practice They confront common ethical and treatment issues and raise issues regarding practice interventions programs policies and laws Cases represent open ended situations encouraging students to apply knowledge from across the social work curriculum to develop problem solving and critical thinking skills An instructor s manual is available on the press s website Dilemmas in Social Work Field Education Terry A. Wolfer, Melissa Reitmeier, 2021-07-20 Field education is social work s signature pedagogy the essential preparation for professional practice Its success depends on field educators field instructors task supervisors or preceptors and faculty field liaisons to guide and assess student learning and maintain the pedagogical integrity of the field experience Despite its importance and complexity few resources exist for orienting and preparing field educators This anthology presents decision cases that depict the actual experiences of social work field educators and students They showcase the complex dynamics of field education and highlight a range of dilemmas experienced by novice and seasoned field educators In various combinations the dilemmas include interpersonal boundaries emotional reactivity initiative expectations role confusion inadequate performance accountability interpersonal conflict personal values and impairment The cases show how other field educators have navigated the issues that typically arise with greater or lesser success The cases portray the intricacy and rewards of this educational role and are selected for their ability to facilitate in depth discussion among field educators during their initial training or continuing education Guided discussions of these cases can bolster supervisory competence and confidence They enable field educators to develop important problem solving and critical thinking skills related to their overlapping roles as instructors supervisors mentors advisors colleagues and role models helping them thrive and continue to serve the profession An accompanying instructor manual provides extensive information for each decision case and also includes guidance for field directors on how to use the case method of teaching and sources for additional information Human Trafficking Noël Bridget

Busch-Armendariz, Maura Nsonwu, Laurie Cook Heffron, 2017-03-31 This practical interdisciplinary text draws from empirically grounded scholarship survivor centered practices and an ecological perspective to help readers develop an understanding of the meaning and scope of human trafficking Throughout the book the authors address the specific vulnerabilities of human trafficking victims their medical psycho social needs and issues related to direct service delivery They also address the identification of human trafficking crimes traffickers and the impact of this crime on the global economy Using detailed case studies to illuminate real situations the book covers national and international anti trafficking policies prevention and intervention strategies promising practices to combat human trafficking responses of law enforcement and service providers organizational challenges and the cost of trafficking to human wellbeing Next Steps

Lori Franklin, Jonathan Kratz, Karen Gray, 2019-05-07 Social work students consistently struggle to apply theory to practice or use the knowledge of textbooks and classrooms in the field Vignettes and scenarios represented in textbooks are often simplistic too tidy to be realistic and with clean resolutions Next Steps Decision Cases for Social Work Practice highlights the complex messy nature of social work practice in a way that is engaging to students allowing them to step into the role of a practicing social worker This book is a collection of decision cases from multiple areas of social work practice designed to enhance the quality and depth of classroom case discussion and analysis These realistic compelling cases present dilemmas about which even experienced practitioners may disagree This allows rich classroom discussion that enhances critical thinking provides real life application and creates numerous opportunities to apply content and knowledge acquired throughout a social work education experience Advanced Social Work Practice Joan Ellen Dworkin, 2005 Dr Joan Dworkin has been a Professor in the Division of Social Work California State University Sacramento since 1994 She teaches advanced social work practice and social work practice with HIV and AIDS in the graduate program Her primary specialty areas are mental health public health HIV and AIDS professional education and divorce mediation and she has experience in provision of clinical services in community mental health and in development of primary prevention programs Multilevel Social Work Practice A Case Study Manual features over 20 cases addressing diverse and ethnic clients and groups so that introductory practitioners can understand the close relationship between their clinical work which is client focused and working for social justice which most frequently is population focused Through the cases content and accompanying activities and resources for further research social workers will develop the ability to fully address the concerns and problems of the people they work with and will be able to act on them simultaneously Case Studies in Social Work Practice Craig W. LeCroy, 1999 Social work practitioners share their fascinating real life experiences in this thoroughly updated new edition filled with interesting and relevant case studies The Second Edition of LeCroy's popular text includes an array of interesting case study material that enlighten students about the day to day practice of social work and includes material that is too often ignored in social work textbooks Students will see what these professionals actually face every day as they learn to integrate theory and practice by studying how practitioners have applied general social work principles to particular case situations in the real world Craig Winston LeCroy co author of Brooks Cole Wadsworth s groundbreaking book with Jose B Ashford and Kathy L Lortie Human Behavior in the Social Environment A Multidimensional Perspective has delivered another solid hit with this impressive book that encourages a vicarious journey into social work practice Spirituality and Religion in Social Work Practice T. Laine Scales,2002 The Practice of Social Work Charles Zastrow,1992 The focus of this thoroughly revised and updated edition is on the theoretical and practical knowledge that students need to do the tasks of a beginner level social worker It is designed for student in practice courses and those preparing for or already in field placement Dying, Death, and Bereavement in Social Work Practice Terry A. Wolfer,Vicki M. Runnion,2008-07-03 Practitioners who work with clients at the end of their lives face difficult decisions concerning the client s self determination the kind of death he or she will have and the prolongation of life They must also remain sensitive to the beliefs and needs of family members and the legal ethical and spiritual ramifications of the client s death Featuring twenty three decision cases based on interviews with professional social workers this unique volume allows students to wrestle with the often incomplete and conflicting information ethical issues and time constraints of actual cases Instead of offering easy solutions this book provides detailed accounts that provoke stimulating debates among students enabling them to confront their own responses beliefs and uncertainties to hone their critical thinking and decision making skills for professional practice Please note Teaching Notes for this volume will be available from Electronic Hallway in Spring 2010 To access the Teaching Notes you must first become a member of the Electronic Hallway The main Electronic Hallway web page is at <https://hallway.org/index.php> To join click Become a Hallway Member in the Get Involved category or point your browser directly to <https://hallway.org/involved/join.php> and provide the required information After your instructor status has been confirmed you will receive an e mail granting access to the Electronic Hallway Once logged on to Electronic Hallway as a member click Case Search in the Cases and Resources category on the main web page Enter death dying bereavement without the quotation marks in the search box select all of the words in the drop down menu and click Submit The search process will generate a list of Teaching Notes for cases from Dying Death and Bereavement in Social Work Practice Decision Cases for Advanced Practice British Journal of Psychiatric Social Work ,1968 Social Work Now ,2007 The Law Journal ,1920 Core Concepts in Advanced Practice Nursing Denise L. Robinson,Cheryl Pope Kish,2001 Developed specifically for masters level nursing courses this information packed text addresses nearly all core content subjects of the graduate curriculum It contains information on health care policy organization of the health care delivery system health care financing ethics professional role development theoretical foundations of nursing practice human diversity and social issues and health promotion and disease prevention
