Uncertainty and Strategic Decision Making Kristian J. Sund,Robert J. Galavan,Anne Sigismund Huff,2016-11-14 In this book leading researchers on Managerial and Organizational Cognition consider the foundations of individual and social cognition and their effect on strategic decision making Decision-making for Space Irvin L. White,1970 Making Space Andrew MacLaran,2014-04-04 Making Space studies the built environment by examining the private sector forces responsible for its development and the urban planning systems put in place to influence guide and manipulate its outcomes The first part provides a theoretical context for understanding the functions of the property development sector and the state s interventions through the medium of urban planning It analyses the relationship between planning and development and focuses on the increasingly widespread adoption of more pro active entrepreneurial planning agendas as a response to a growing disenchantment with traditional regulatory approaches The second part comprises case studies drawn from Australia New Zealand the USA the United Kingdom and Ireland which investigate the ways in which urban planning in different socio political contexts has influenced the outcomes of the property development process as well as the manner in which such planning systems have changed in order to enhance their influence Modern Music-Inspired Optimization Algorithms for Electric Power Systems Mohammad Kiani-Moghaddam,Mojtaba Shivaie,Philip D. Weinsier,2019-05-21 In today s world with an increase in the breadth and scope of real world engineering optimization problems as well as with the advent of big data improving the performance and efficiency of algorithms for solving such problems has become an indispensable need for specialists and researchers In contrast to conventional books in the field that employ traditional single stage computational single dimensional and single homogeneous optimization algorithms this book addresses multiple newfound architectures for meta heuristic music inspired optimization algorithms These proposed algorithms with multi stage computational multi dimensional and multi inhomogeneous structures bring about a new direction in the architecture of meta heuristic algorithms for solving complicated real world large scale non convex non smooth engineering optimization problems having a non linear mixed integer nature with big data The architectures of these new algorithms may also be appropriate for finding an optimal solution or a Pareto optimal solution set with higher accuracy and speed in comparison to other optimization algorithms when feasible regions of the solution space and or dimensions of the optimization problem increase This book unlike conventional books on power systems problems that only consider simple and impractical models deals with complicated techno economic real world large scale models of power systems operation and planning Innovative applicable ideas in these models make this book a precious resource for specialists and researchers with a background in power systems operation and planning Provides an understanding of the optimization problems and algorithms particularly meta heuristic optimization algorithms found in fields such as engineering economics management and operations research

Enhances existing architectures and develops innovative architectures for meta heuristic music inspired optimization algorithms in order to deal with complicated real world large scale non convex non smooth engineering optimization problems having a non linear mixed integer nature with big data Addresses innovative multi level techno economic real world large scale computational logical frameworks for power systems operation and planning and illustrates practical training on implementation of the frameworks using the meta heuristic music inspired optimization algorithms

Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 9 Heather Conway, Robin Hickey, 2017-07-27 This book contains a collection of peer reviewed papers presented at the Eleventh Biennial Modern Studies in Property Law Conference held at Queen's University Belfast in April 2016 It is the ninth volume to be published under the name of the Conference The Conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline This collection reflects the diversity and contemporary relevance of modern research in property law Following a foreword from the keynote speaker at the Conference Queen's alumnus Lord Kerr of Tonaghmore the chapters address a range of issues from the nature of land law and property rights through claims to the home and digital assets to the growing debate on the nature of public property Collectively the chapters demonstrate the vibrancy and importance of property law in dealing with modern concerns across the common law world

Teaching: Dilemmas, Challenges & Opportunities Robyn Ewing, Lisa Kervin, Christine Glass, Brad Gobby, Rosie Le Cornu, Susan Groundwater-Smith, 2019-09-26 We have not sought in this book to define best practice for you but have rather challenged you to think about ways in which to teach intelligently insightfully and respectfully How does a teacher deal with a student's challenging behaviour in the classroom Is it fair to adopt information and communication technologies that favour students who have access to sophisticated devices such as tablets in their own home How during the professional experience is an education student to act when his or her beliefs about learning are not congruent with those of the supervising teacher Should students be grouped in terms of their ability These and many more issues arise daily in our early childhood primary and secondary learning environments Teaching 6e takes a holistic approach to classroom teaching and learning It considers the complexities and opportunities embedded in meeting learners' needs in diverse and ever changing contexts It encourages pre service teachers to become active learners of teaching how to think like teachers and to consider the fundamental aspects of teaching It directs pre service teachers to useful teaching resources in text in references and online Case studies and reflection opportunities encourage pre service teachers to consider their own strengths and issues the diversity of learning styles in their students their school and wider community as well as government and ethical requirements It raises student awareness of what it really means to teach and how they can do it Students will continue to refer to this well researched and easy to use text throughout their qualification in their professional placement and into their teaching career

Making Space for the River Jeroen Frank Warner, Arwin van Buuren, Jurian Edelenbos, 2012-11-01 This book examines recent developments in river flood management from the viewpoint of Making Space for the River and the resulting challenges for water governance Different examples from Europe and the United States of America are discussed that aim to green rivers including increasing river discharge for flood management enhancing natural and landscape values promoting local or regional economic development and urban regeneration Making Space for the River presents not only opportunities and synergies but also risks as it crosses established institutional boundaries and touches on multiple stakeholder interests which can easily clash Making Space for the River helps the reader to understand the policy and governance dynamics that lead to these tensions and pays attention to a variety of attempts to organize effective and legitimate governance approaches The book helps to realize connections between policy domains problem frames and goals of different actors at different levels that contribute to decisive and legitimate action Making Space for the River has an international comparative character that sheds light upon both the country specific governance dilemmas which relate to specific state traditions and institutional characteristics of national water management but also uncovers interesting similarities which provide us with building blocks to formulate more generic lessons about the governance of Making Space for the River in different institutional and social contexts The authors of this book come from a variety of disciplines including public administration town and country planning geography and anthropology and these different disciplines bring multiple ways of knowing and understanding of Making Space for the River programs The book combines interdisciplinary scientific analyses of Space for the River projects and programs with practical knowing and lessons drawing Making Space for the River is written for both practitioners and scholars and students of environmental policy spatial planning land use and water management Editors Jeroen Warner Assistant Professor of Disaster Studies Wageningen University The Netherlands Arwin van Buuren Associate Professor of Public Administration Erasmus University Rotterdam The Netherlands Jurian Edelenbos Professor of Public Administration Erasmus University Rotterdam The Netherlands

Affecting the Banker and Merchant [from the Decisions of the Highest Courts of the Several States], [1879-1913], Vol. 1-12, 15, 16 James Smith McMaster, 1903      Rehnquist Justice Earl M. Maltz, 2003 With seven of its justices appointed by Republican presidents today's Supreme Court has significantly altered America's legal landscape since 1986 by tilting constitutional jurisprudence to the right That was the goal of Presidents Reagan and Bush in filling court vacancies and has been felt in cases related to federalism economic rights and affirmative action However liberal issues such as abortion have moved only marginally to the right while rulings by the Court on school prayer and gay rights have moved constitutional doctrine slightly to the left In this collection of original articles prominent constitutional scholars are joined by new voices from the cutting edge of academia to subject the Rehnquist Court to closer scrutiny and to show that its brand of conservatism is less extreme than many have supposed Reflecting views across the political spectrum the contributors help readers understand the Court dynamic its constrained conservatism and the forces that shape constitutional law in general As these authors show the overall pattern of decision making in the Rehnquist era cannot be attributed to any single unified approach to constitutional analysis Instead today's Court can only be understood as the product of a complex interaction among individual justices each with an idiosyncratic view of the proper interpretation of the Constitution and the role of the Court in the American political system These provocative essays are designed to provide readers with insight into this interaction by focusing on each member of the bench From the staunch conservatism of Clarence Thomas to the accommodationism of Sandra Day O'Connor to the liberal constitutionalism of David Souter the essays analyze the unique approach of each justice to interpreting the Constitution They also show that the current justices are the product of a nomination and confirmation process that has undergone a major transformation in recent decades one which favors experienced often unknown jurists over high profile public servants By concentrating attention on its members Rehnquist Justice allows us to better understand the Supreme Court as a whole And by assessing today's judiciary in light of a public philosophy that looks askance at government it shows us that the Supreme Court has truly become a mirror of its times

Embracing the Track of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Decisionmaking For Space

In some sort of eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast interaction, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony developed by the published term often diminish into the background, eclipsed by the relentless noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Decisionmaking For Space an enchanting literary prize overflowing with raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts viewers on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the poignant review, we will discover the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing model, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
