Deconstructing Communication Representation Subject And Economies Of Exchange:

Deconstructing Communication Brian G. Chang, 1996 Through a detailed examination of the basis of the idea of communication with its semantic core of commonality or the transcendence of difference Chang argues against the tendency of theorists to value understanding over misunderstanding clarity over ambiguity order over disorder To this end the author revisits the thought of Derrida and considers deconstruction in general Specifically he uses the critique of the phenomenological tradition emerging from poststructuralism to clarify the commitments and assumptions inherent in models of communication A seminal work Deconstructing Communication will serve as the guiding framework for a constructive debate about the future direction of communication theory Situated at the intersection of current debates regarding meaning and representation Deconstructing Communication casts doubt on the seeming innocence of the activity of communication Using poststructuralist literary theory and philosophy Brian G Chang argues that modern theories fail to provide an adequate explanation for how communication is possible

Communicology Isaac E. Catt, Deborah Eicher-Catt, 2010 About the Editors Action and Agency in Dialogue François Cooren, 2010-06-11 What happens when people communicate or dialogue with each other This is the daunting question that this book proposes to address by starting from a controversial hypothesis What if human interactants were not the only ones to be considered paraphrasing Austin 1962 as doing things with words That is what if other things could also be granted the status of agents in a dialogical situation Action and Agency in Dialogue Passion incarnation and ventriloquism proposes to explore this unique hypothesis by mobilizing metaphorically the notion of ventriloquism According to this ventriloquial perspective interactions are never purely local but dislocal that is they constantly mobilize figures collectives principles values emotions etc that incarnate themselves in people's discussions This highly original book which develops the analytical practical and ethical dimensions of such a theoretical positioning may be of interest to communication scholars linguists sociologists conversation analysts management and organizational scholars as well as philosophers interested in language action and ethics

Expressions of Ethnography Robin Patric Clair, 2012-02-01 Expressions of Ethnography embraces the idea that alternative genres may be used to express culture Using examples of a wide variety of cultural phenomena contemporary ways to practice ethnography and novel forms of expressing the cultural experience the book offers an eclectic mix of short stories novels and poetry as well as traditional scholarly reports of poignant provocative and powerful cultural phenomena Included are accounts of recovery following the terrorist attacks of 9 11 life as a prison guard surviving child abuse and coping via an eating disorder dealing with disabilities living the gay life birthing babies as well as searching for birth mothers Special attention is given to dialogue from dialogue with families and friends to American ethnographers interviewing Thai managers

Deconstruction David J. Gunkel, 2021-09-07 An accessible introduction to a concept often considered impossibly abstruse demonstrating its power as a conceptual tool in the twenty first century This volume in the MIT Press Essential Knowledge series offers a clear and concise introduction to a topic often considered difficult and abstruse deconstruction David Gunkel sorts out the concept terminology and practices of deconstruction not to defend academic orthodoxy or to disseminate the thought of Jacques Derrida the fabricator of the neologism and progenitor of the concept but to provide readers with a powerful conceptual tool for the twenty first century Gunkel explains that deconstruction is not simply the opposite of construction the deconstructed jacket hanging in your closet is not strictly speaking accurately named or synonymous with destruction It is a way to think beyond the construction destruction dichotomy and all other conceptual dichotomies and logical oppositions After describing what deconstruction is not and developing an abstract and schematic characterization derived from Derrida Gunkel offers examples in rather than of deconstruction including logocentrism the speech writing dichotomy and virtuality the ruling philosophical binary of real appearance remix the original copy distinction and the posthuman figure of the cyborg the human machine conceptual pairing Finally Gunkel discusses the costs and benefits of deconstruction considering the many things deconstruction is good for and identifying potential problems including Eurocentrism relativism difficulties in communicating the concept and reappropriation

Mediating the Real Pascal Sigg, 2024-05-06 As a literary genre the nonfictional reportage has particular implications for the role of the writer Pascal Sigg shows how six U S American writers including David Foster Wallace George Saunders and Rachel Kaadzi Ghansah reflect on themselves as human media in their reportage The writers assert themselves in a postmodern way by scrutinizing their own mediation As it also traces and develops the theorization of reportage as genre along the reporters early concerns with technical media this pioneering contribution to literary journalism studies paves a way for a new materialist approach in the under researched field

International Journal of Communication , 2005 Bringing Forth a World Joff P.N. Bradley, David Kennedy, 2019-12-30 Offering a critical yet constructive response to the perceived crises in tertiary foreign language education in the Japanese university the contributors to Bringing Forth a World provide theoretical and practical solutions which together act as a prolegomena to bringing forth a world Theirs is an ecology of contribution in liberal arts education which takes responsibility for the care for youth and contests intellectual passivity and indifference in foreign language instruction The editors proffer a transformative engaged and multidisciplinary liberal arts pedagogy one at odds with forms of lowest common denominator one size fits all and standardized provision In response to the prevalent business dominated model they demonstrate an applied format of multiliteracy theory one with semiotic multimodal feminist dimensions which is regionally specific and better accounts for divergent forms of human expression and perception The writers not only take account of the intellectual and mental issues in the student demographic but also in the teaching profession which suffers from widespread anxiety job insecurity and a lack of autonomy experimentation and innovation Philosophically the contributors to this book demand a form of meaning making which is fundamentally social and creative and which celebrates processes of becoming other in between the student and teacher that seldom if ever follow a predictable trajectory It is hoped that readers will embrace the spirit of the book pick up its philosophical gauntlet to think otherwise than prevalent standardized models of teaching and learning and therefore will use its core tenets to experiment with different ways of educating the youth of today Between the Defeat and the Constitution Richie Sakakibara,1999 Semiotica ,1998

The Body in Language Horst Ruthrof,2000 Language is not merely verbal Nonverbal signs and interpretations not only contribute to language but in fact compose the structure of language itself Horst Ruthrof delves into the nonverbal facets of language such as olfactory gustatory aural visual and tactile readings Proposing reclamation of the body as an integral part of language this book argues against structural linguistics and post Saussurean theories To support his standpoint Ruthrof draws on the writings of Peirce Husserl Heidegger Wittgenstein Derrida and Helen Keller and on recent research in cognitive science cognitive linguistics and cognitive rhetoric Asian Law Journal ,1997 Response, Resistance, Deconstruction Mikko Keskinen,1998 Yhteenveto American Book Publishing Record ,1996 Differences ,2005

Sociological Abstracts ,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers Freedom of Expression® Kembrew McLeod,2005 Publisher Description Philosophy of Early Childhood Education Sandy Farquhar,Peter Fitzsimons,2008-02-04 This book provides an insightful reflection on contemporary issues theories underpinning early childhood education The essays penned by an international group of educators are both critical transformative offering new insights on the practices policies within early childhood education Vidura ,1996 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998
