Publisher Description     Taking Sides James Wm Noll,2007 This is a debate style reader designed to introduce students to controversies in education The readings which represent the arguments of leading educators and social commentators reflect opposing positions and have been selected for their liveliness and substance and because of their value in a debate framework For each issue the editor provides a concise introduction and postscript summary The introduction sets the stage for the debate as it is argued in the yes and no readings The postscript briefly reviews the opposing opinions and suggests additional readings on the controversial issue under discussion Back cover     Educating for a Worldview Larry

Hufford,Teresita Pedrajas,2007 Educating for Worldview consists of an array of essays from scholars from around the world including the Fiji Islands Hong Kong Canada Japan India Nigeria and the United States The essays included in this volume have been selected from papers and lectures presented at the eleventh Triennial Conference of the World Council for Curriculum and Instruction These essays cover a range of topics such as Asian and Pacific indigenous education peace education and the use of technology to train teachers in Nigeria The authors share a commitment to a grassroots model of global education that challenges the traditional colonial model The new model is holistic as the essays cover topics from elementary middle and high school to university and non traditional adult education     Where are the Academically

Successful Puerto Rican Students? René Antrop-González,William Vélez,Tomás Garrett,2003     Beyond Liberal Democracy in Schools Barbara J. Thayer-Bacon,2008 In this unique union of philosophy and ethnographic research Barbara

Thayer Bacon explains how the individualist legacy of liberal democracy as conceived by Locke and Rousseau ignores and excludes the needs of American students raised in cultures with strong communal traditions Drawing upon her experience with the educational methods of other cultures as well as the work of modern educational philosophers such as Dewey Barber Young and Mouffe and Laclau Thayer Bacon shows us how our current vision of the democratic process as revealed in school practices routinely fails minority students She offers recommendations to help us develop learning environments for students that are culturally aware anti racist and relationally focused This radical reimagining of American schools will be beneficial to researchers and practitioners alike This book illustrates how current educational theories marginalize students belonging to a variety of minority populations Native American Mexican American African American offers a new theory of educational philosophy that values both individuals and communities and makes room for emotion and intuition as learning tools and envisions new ways of teaching based on the author s experiences studying and observing schools in other cultures

Developing Strategies and Practices for Culturally Diverse Classrooms Joyce Taylor Gibson,1999 Education Under Occupation Pierre W. Orelus,2007 In this book the author critically analyzes the ongoing and wide ranging effects of colonialism and globalization on the poor especially on those living in the Third World The author s overarching argument is that colonization was not merely about the conquest of foreign lands but it was also about the ideological monitoring of the colonized s mind often maintained through western hegemonic texts and institutional apparatus such as schools and churches Analyzing and situating colonialism in the context of western neo liberal policy of occupation and economic political and ideological dominations the author thus demonstrates how through schools and the mass corporate media neocolonized and occupied subjects have been mis educated to internalize and reproduce old western values beliefs and norms at the expense of their own Publisher Social Planning and Cultural Changes in Lao People's Democratic Republic Patcharin Sirasoonthorn,2008 Education 07/08 Fred Schultz,2006-09 This thirty fourth edition of ANNUAL EDITIONS EDUCATION provides convenient inexpensive access to current articles selected from the best of the public press Organizational features include an annotated listing of selected World Wide Web sites an annotated table of contents a topic guide a general introduction brief overviews for each section a topical index and an instructor s resource guide with testing materials USING ANNUAL EDITIONS IN THE CLASSROOM is offered as a practical guide for instructors ANNUAL EDITIONS titles are supported by our student website Conflict of Interests Joel H. Spring,1998 Providing a critical understanding of the political and social forces shaping educational politics in the United States this concise text describes and analyzes how policy is made for American schools and its effect on all of our lives and thinking Joel Spring argues that the politics of Education is driven by a complex interrelationship between politicians private foundations and think tanks teachers unions special interest groups educational politicians school administrators boards of education courts and the knowledge industry The text uses many current examples to illustrate conflicts over educational policies
