Drawing Support 2 Murals Of War And Peace:

Drawing Support 2 Bill Rolston,1995 Ethnographies of Movement, Sociality and Space Milena

Komarova,Maruška Svašek,2018-07-20 Exploring the complex dynamics of twenty first century spatial sociality this volume provides a much needed multi dimensional perspective that undermines the dominant image of Northern Ireland as a conflict ridden place Despite touching on memories of the Troubles and continuing unionist nationalist tensions the volume refuses to consider people in the region as purely political beings or to understand processes of placemaking solely through ethnic or national contestations and territoriality Topics such as the significance of friendship gender and popular culture in spatial practices are considered against the backdrop of the growing presence of migrants refugees and diasporic groups

Memory Ireland Oona Frawley,2014-05-16 Recent years have seen cultural memory become a significant element in area studies and the humanities Ireland with its trauma filled history and huge global diaspora presents a fascinating subject for work in this vein This series as a whole seeks to construct a landscape of cultural memory in Ireland looking to map through an examination of various historical moments spaces and cultural forms the ways in which cultural memory shifts over time Volume 3 focuses on the impact of trauma on cultural memory by considering two cruxes the Famine and the Troubles as formative to the study of Irish cultural memory Topics include hunger strikes monuments to the Famine trauma and the politics of memory in the Irish peace process and Ulster Loyalist battles in the twenty first century Gathering the work of leading scholars such as Graham Dawson Richard Kearney Margaret Kelleher David Lloyd and Joseph Valente this collection is an essential contribution to the field of Irish studies Painting History Tony Crowley,2025-09-16 Painting History The Murals of Northern Ireland 1908 2024 is the first book length study of the oldest and most enduring tradition of political wall art Tony Crowley shows how muralism became an important medium for the unionist and loyalist community in its political domination of public space before and after Partition The text also demonstrates that nationalists and republicans painted few murals before the start of the 1981 Hunger Strike during which they painted wall art across republican areas of Northern Ireland as a way of publicizing their cause In the context of a divided society by the mid 1980s murals had become an established genre for the expression of political demands and aspirations In Painting History Tony Crowley provides a detailed analysis of the complex tradition of muralism in the context of the history that produced it with particular attention given to the cultural politics of this remarkable form The book also raises and discusses a series of theoretical questions about murals and muralism that transcend Northern Ireland issues of propriety and legality form and content authority and censorship The work ends with a consideration of the future of the murals in a still polarized but changing region

Northern Ireland: The Troubles Kenneth Lesley-Dixon,2020-01-31 It is of course no secret that undercover Special Forces and intelligence agencies operated in Northern Ireland and the Republic throughout the troubles from 1969 to 2001 and beyond What is less well known is how these units were recruited how they operated what their mandate was and what they actually did This is the first account to reveal much of this hitherto unpublished information providing a truly unique record of surveillance reconnaissance intelligence gathering collusion and undercover combat An astonishing number of agencies were active to combat the IRA murder squads the Provos among others the Military Reaction Force MRF and the Special Reconnaissance Unit also known as the 14 Field Security and Intelligence Company The Det as well as MI5 Special Branch the RUC the UDR and the Force Research Unit FRU later the Joint Support Group JSG It deals with still contentious and challenging issues as shoot to kill murder squads the Disappeared and collusion with loyalists It examines the findings of the Stevens Cassel and De Silva reports and looks at operations Loughgall Andersonstown Gibraltar and others Strained

Peace: Northern Ireland from Good Friday to Brexit Amanda Hall, 2024-09-30 As the United Kingdom continues to grapple with the aftermath of Brexit one corner of the Union has remained caught in the crosshairs Northern Ireland has been the subject of renewed scrutiny since 2016 as efforts to leave the European Union come up against the terms of the Good Friday Agreement and threaten the region's hard won peace The reasons for these challenges can be traced back to the Agreement itself as the negotiated settlement and its immediate aftermath set in place a strained peace This book examines the function and dysfunction of peace after 1998 to explain why its endurance cannot be taken for granted Strained peace stands apart from the traditional peace violence binary Structures of conflict and patterns of division are reiterated in the structures of peace Tensions might relax just as they might be inflamed by new challenges but the threat of a return to violence is never fully gone This book explores how such a condition developed between Good Friday and Brexit addressing variations in the quality of peace in the insecurity of official structures at Stormont the shifting role of community groups and the third sector and the adaptation of culture as a culture war replaced physical violence on the streets Journal of

Folklore Research ,2008-12 Anáil an Bhéil Bheo Nessa Cronin, Seán Crosson, John Eastlake, 2009 An il an Bh c il Bheo brings together a stimulating range of interdisciplinary essays considering the connections between orality and modern Irish culture From literature to song folklore to the visual arts contributors examine not only the connections between oral and textual traditions in Ireland but also the theoretical concept of orality itself and the corresponding significance of oral texts in Irish society Featuring work by emerging scholars in the fields of history literature folklore music women's studies film and theatre studies and disciplines contributing to Irish Studies this multifaceted volume also includes contributions from scholars long engaged with issues of orality such as Gear 3id Cruaíaoich and Henry Glassie Circa Art Magazine ,2004

Folklore Forum ,2002 Contemporary Northern Irish Society Colin Coulter, 1999-10-20 New expanded edition of a classic anthropology title that examines ethnicity as a dynamic and shifting aspect of social relations A Call to Conscience Anthony Charles Holter, 2004 Crossing Paths Or Sharing Tracks? Audrey J. Horning, Marilyn Palmer, 2009 This volume brings together over 30 leading scholars in post medieval archaeology and examines where this relatively new discipline has developed from and perhaps more importantly where it is going in the decades to come Making Peace with the Past? Graham Dawson, 2007 This book explores the psychic cultural and political ramifications of memory within the Irish troubles It investigates the traumatic impact of the violence perpetrated since 1969 the antagonistic cultural narratives of memory fashioned and mobilized in this context within public and private arenas and the conflicts paradoxes and contradictions involved in coming to terms with the past both before and during the Irish peace process initiated in 1993 94 It traces the formation from below of competing public narratives one concerned with the ethnic cleansing of Protestants by the Irish Republican Army the other with British state violence on Bloody Sunday and analyses their subjective roots in specific experiences of fear and loss their role in ideological struggle and their complicated relation to private familial and individual remembering Wakes, Ceilis, and Characters Ray Cashman, 2002 War Art Wayne Cocroft, 2006 This book will present in accessible and visual form the diversity and significance of modern military wall art largely in Britain but set within its wider geographical and historical context War Zone Language Cordula Hawes-Bilger, 2007 Social Analysis, 2000 The European Design Annual, 2000 Our Own Devices Ewan Morris, 2005 National symbols have long been highly contentious in Ireland and they remain so today While there have been a number of studies which have examined the role of symbols in the contemporary conflict in Northern Ireland as yet there has been no detailed study of debates about national symbols in twentieth century Ireland This book fills that gap outlining the historical background to the continuing controversy about national symbols in Ireland and shedding new light on the deep political divisions which have marked Irish society throughout this century Our Own Devices focuses on the crucial period from 1922 to 1939 which saw the creation and consolidation of new governments in the Irish Free State and Northern Ireland It also examines in detail the selection of official symbols of state by governments in both parts of Ireland and public responses to those symbols Having discussed the conflicts over symbols which took place in the early decades of the two states the book concludes by bringing the story up to date and relating earlier controversies about national symbols to current debates about the role of symbols in conflict and peacemaking in Northern Ireland This study is a pioneering work in this relatively new area of Irish history and is based on extensive original research using many sources which have not previously been cited in published works
