Dream Breakers:

Dream Makers, Dream Breakers Rowan, Carl Thomas Rowan, 1995-03-01 The Radical Fund John Fabian Witt, 2025-10-14 From Pulitzer Prize finalist John Fabian Witt comes the captivating secret history of an epic experiment to remake American democracy Before the dark money of the Koch Brothers before the billions of the Ford Foundation there was the Garland Fund In 1922 a young idealist named Charles Garland rejected a million dollar inheritance In a world of shocking wealth disparities shameless racism and political repression Garland opted instead to invest in a future where radical ideas like working class power free speech and equality might flourish Over the next two decades the Garland Fund would nurture a new generation of wildly ambitious progressive projects The men and women around the Fund were rich and poor white and Black They cooperated and bickered they formed rivalries fell in and out of love and made mistakes Yet shared beliefs linked them throughout They believed that American capitalism was broken They believed that American democracy if it had ever existed stole from those who had the least And they believed that American institutions needed to be radically remade for the modern age By the time they spent the last of the Fund's resources their outsider ideas had become mass movements battling to transform a nation A luminous testament to the power of visionary organizations and a meditation on the vexed role of money in American life The Radical Fund is a hopeful book for our anxious angry age an empowering road map for how people with heretical ideas can bring about audacious change Servants of the People L. Williams, 2016-04-30 This revised and expanded edition traces the lives of key American civil rights leaders as they willingly risk their lives for the civil rights cause including A Philip Randolph Thurgood Marshall Adam Clayton Powell Jr Fannie Lou Hamer and Ella Baker Black Enterprise , 1993-09 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Uplifting a People Marybeth Gasman, Katherine V. Sedgwick, 2005 Philanthropy is typically considered to be within the province of billionaires This book broadens that perspective by highlighting modest acts of giving by African Americans on behalf of their own people Examining the important tradition of Black philanthropy this groundbreaking work documents its history its beginning as a response to discrimination through self help among freed slaves and its expansion to include the support of education religion the arts and legal efforts on behalf of civil rights Using diverse approaches the authors illuminate a new world of philanthropy one that will be of interest to scholars and students alike Chapters review the contributions of such major figures as Booker T Washington and Thurgood Marshall and discuss the often surprising practices and methods of contemporary African American donors Servants of the People NA NA, 2016-04-30 Beginning with the 1954 Brown v Board of Education Supreme Court case this book traces the lives of six American civil rights leaders as they willingly risk their lives for the civil rights cause A Philip Randolph Frederick D Patterson Thurgood Marshall Whitney M Young Adam Clayton Powell Jr and

Fannie Lou Hamer Dream Markers, Dream Breakers Carl Rowan, 1993 The Dream Breakers L. Pennington, 1990-10-15 Dare to Dream Florence Littauer, 1993-02 The author believes that dreaming is not only healthy but vital to a happy and fulfilling future In an inspiring and instructional message Littauer teaches readers how to balance their inner potential and offers six steps to living a life of vision and purpose challenging readers to dare to dream prepare the dream wear the dream repair the dream and share the dream A Step toward Brown v. Board of Education Cheryl Elizabeth Brown Wattley, 2014-10-22 In 1946 a young woman named Ada Lois Sipuel Fisher 1924 1995 was denied admission to the University of Oklahoma College of Law because she was African American The OU law school was an all white institution in a town where African Americans could work and shop as long as they got out before sundown But if segregation was entrenched in Norman so was the determination of black Oklahomans who had survived slavery to stake a claim in the territory This was the tradition that Ada Lois Sipuel sprang from a tradition and determination that would sustain her through the slow tortuous path of litigation to gaining admission to law school A Step toward Brown v Board of Education the first book to tell Fisher s full story is at once an inspiring biography and a remarkable chapter in the history of race and civil rights in America Cheryl Elizabeth Brown Wattley gives us a richly textured picture of the black and white world from which Ada Lois Sipuel and her family emerged Against this Oklahoma background Wattley shows Sipuel who married Warren Fisher a year before she filed her suit struggling against a segregated educational system Her legal battle is situated within the history of civil rights litigation and race related jurisprudence in the state of Oklahoma and in the nation Hers was a test case organized by the NAACP National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to go all the way to the U S Supreme Court and as precedent strike another blow against separate but equal public education Fisher served as both a litigant with Thurgood Marshall for counsel and later a litigator both a plaintiff and an advocate for the NAACP and both a student and ultimately a teacher of the very history she had helped to write In telling Fisher s story Wattley also reveals a time and a place undergoing a profound transformation spurred by one courageous woman taking a bold step forward
