Media Management and Artificial Intelligence Alex Connock, 2022-11-18 This cutting-edge textbook examines contemporary media business models in the context of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and digital transformation. AI has dramatically impacted media production and distribution, from recommendation engines to synthetic humans, from video to text tools to natural language models. AI is really the change agent of the media industry. Answered: a natural language generation model when AI was asked about the subject of this book. It will open incredible opportunities. This book seeks to explore them. The media is examined through four sections: Principles, maps, business models, and the key tools of AI. Platforms covers distribution channels in Games, Streamers, Social Networks, Broadcast, and Digital Publishing. Producers covers the engines of content making, including Scripted Entertainment, Factual Content Marketing, Creators, and Music. Finally, Pioneers covers emerging sectors of Podcasting, Esports, the Metaverse, and other AI-driven developments. Then, in each chapter, a standard value creation model is applied, mapping a single sector through development, production, distribution, and monetisation. Diverse case studies are analysed from India, Nigeria, South Korea, South Africa, France, the Netherlands, the US, the UK, Denmark, and China, around creative entrepreneurship, revenue models, profit drivers, rights, and emerging AI tools. Questions are provided for each case, whilst chapter summaries cement learning. Applied and technology-focused, this text offers core reading for advanced undergraduate and postgraduates studying Media Management or the relationship between Entertainment Media and Technology. Online resources include chapter-by-chapter PowerPoint slides and an Instructor's Manual with further exercises and case studies. Writing and Editing for Digital Media Brian Carroll, 2025-12-12 An essential guide to writing and editing for digital media, this sixth edition responds to the mainstreaming of genAI (Generative AI) and LLMs (Large Language Models) among many other changes in the best practices of digital storytelling. Carroll explains and demonstrates how to effectively write for digital spaces and places that typically abound with graphical content multimedia and hypertextual interactive elements He also combines hands on practical exercises with information on key topics such as misinformation and disinformation and the proliferation of artificial intelligence This new edition specifically explores the ethical questions raised by AI as well as the new possibilities it presents Each chapter features lessons and exercises through which students can build a solid understanding of the ways that digital communication provides opportunities for dynamic storytelling and multi directional communication It also speaks to writers editors public relations practitioners and social media managers and marketers Updated with contemporary examples and new pedagogy throughout this is the ideal handbook for students seeking careers in digital media particularly in content development and digital storytelling It is an essential text for students of media communication public relations marketing and journalism who are looking to develop their writing and editing skills for these ever evolving fields and professions This book also has accompanying Support Material that offers additional weekly activities and assignments providing students additional opportunity to put theory into practice
